

Grace Baker

Graduate Student

(731) 796-2400

gmbo057@auburn.edu

Summary

An altruistic and ambitious undergraduate student with competencies in time management, decision-making, organization, and leadership. Seeking admission into the Auburn University College of Education Agriscience Education program.

Education

May 2021

HIGH SCHOOL DIPLOMA

Station Camp High School

May 2025

B.S. ELEMENTARY EDUCATION

Auburn University

Expertise

- efficient communication
- patient
- responsible
- organized
- reliable
- detail-oriented

Experience

October 2024 - Present

Kelly Education I Auburn, AL

SUBSTITUTE TEACHER

- Adapt to diverse classroom environments to maintain students' academic development during teacher absence
- Implement classroom teacher policies and expectations to ensure consistency in learning environment
- Instruct students in various topics using research-based methods

July 2022 - Present

Local Families I Auburn, AL

NANNY

- Prioritize children's safety in an environment that aligns with the parent's expectations
- Provide nurturing and structured in-home care for infants, toddlers, and children up to age fifteen
- Communicate with parents regarding scheduling, children's needs, and activities

January 2025 - May 2025

Ogletree Elementary School I Auburn, AL

INTERN

- Collaborated with clinical educators to prepare and implement effective lessons fitted to the needs of all learners
- Efficiently maintained deadlines related to university courses and internship-related responsibilities
- Communicated with staff and administration to build and maintain professional relationships and connections

January 2023 - May 2025

Duck's Unlimited at Auburn University I Auburn, AL

VICE PRESIDENT

- Collaborated with executive team to plan and implement policies and fundraising events for the betterment of the chapter and its members
- Led and coordinated weekly committee meetings while keeping members engaged and informed on current involvement opportunities
- Fostered a welcoming and inclusive environment by encouraging collaboration and participation among members