Please also notify your Division Program Chair as soon as possible if you need to cancel your presentation. If you are listed as the first author/presenter on more than 2 presentations, please contact convention@apa.org to resolve the issue.

Next Steps:

1. Register for APA 2025 and book your housing. Registration is open. Please note that all presenters must register for APA 2025. We highly recommend registering by June 4 to receive the best rate. The list of official APA 2025 hotels offering discounted rates is now available for booking. These special rates are only guaranteed from April 23-July 21, so we recommend booking early before room blocks are sold out
2. Request disability accommodations early, if needed. While we aim to anticipate a wide range of access needs, we recognize that individual needs vary, and individualized requests remain essential. Accommodations requests can be made via the registration form. To ensure we can fulfil your needs, please complete this form as soon as possible.
3. Review APA's guidelines for creating effective and accessible posters.
4. Upload your poster and a short explainer video to the Virtual Poster Hall (optional). We encourage in-person poster presenters to upload their posters and a short (less than 5-minute) video to the Virtual Poster Hall. This allows your work to reach both in-person and virtual attendees. Moreover, your poster and video will be accessible to all conference attendees for three months post-event.
