CAUTION: Email Originated Outside of Auburn.

Dear Clare,

I am pleased to inform you that your research poster titled Digital Presence of Central [State] farms has been accepted for poster presentation at the 2023 National Agricultural Communications Symposium. Please inform others who were co-authors with you.

Important information, including registration and poster guidelines, for NACS can be found below.

POSTER GUIDELINES:

Poster abstracts that are accepted should be developed into posters which are:

- Brief and clearly organized.
- Easy to read from a distance of 4 to 6 feet.
- No larger than 48 inches wide x 36 inches tall.

Poster setup and presentation times will be announced when the section program is finalized. Tables and boards will be provided. Presenters must provide pushpins and/or other fasteners to hold posters to boards.

NEW TO NACS THIS YEAR: GRANT WRITING RETREAT

NACS is excited to provide an opportunity to meet with potential grant collaborators! We have reserved a room before the official start of NACS on Saturday, February 4th from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

If you are thinking about applying for a grant but are still looking for collaborators or maybe you do not have an idea but would like to join a collaboration team, this is a great opportunity.

If you have an idea, please provide a brief summary, your name, and contact info in this Google Sheet. We will share this with NACS registrants and encourage individuals who are interested in collaborating to reach out before NACS. We also plan to have the main contact share these ideas at the start of the retreat.

This would be a great opportunity to solicit feedback and hear what others are working on. There is no additional registration fee for the grant writing retreat and you can join the retreat at any time if you cannot join us for the whole day.

If you have any questions about the grant writing retreat or trouble accessing the Google Sheet, please contact Dr. Ashley McLeod-Morin at ashleymcleod@ufl.edu.

NACS Registration:
