CAUTION: Email Originated Outside of Auburn.

Dear Courtney Williams,

We are delighted to accept your submission, Reducing Mental Health Stigma Among Black Women and Their Families: A Culturally Tailored Pilot Intervention, for the 2025 SPSP Annual Convention, February 20-22, 2024.

You were accepted as an in-person Poster, congratulations. Please let your co-authors know of your acceptance, as this email is only sent to the first/presenting author.

See below for more info about in-person poster sessions and how we are proceeding with them:

- Presentation format: Poster Session
- Location: Denver, CO
- Presentation Requirements:
  - ✓ PPT/Handout upload (recommended) to the Whova App
  - ✓ Present and display your poster during a 60-minute poster session with other posters
  - ✓ 10-15-minute video/audio recording of each poster (suggested but not required) to the Whova App.
- Membership Requirement: In order to present, all presenters are required to be a current member of SPSP through December 31, 2025. To join or renew, please click here.
- Registration Requirement: All presenters must register for the Annual Convention by the speaker Registration Deadline of December 5, 2024. To register, please click here. Registration is now open!
- Withdraw: if you are no longer able to present at the convention, you must withdraw before December 5.

If you wish to withdraw from the convention, please just let me know. Otherwise, we look forward to having your poster on the program.

Scheduling and presenter information will come by the end of October, for now we just want to confirm your acceptance.

Thank you! And congrats again!
