

Person Summary

Share...

Kari D. Smith-Murphy, Auburn University

Sun, April 14

7:45 to 9:15am

Pennsylvania Convention Center, Floor: Level 100, Room 112B

In Paper Session: Natural Disasters, the Environment, and Educational Outcomes
 On Paper: The Ecology of Opportunity: Environmental Health and Student Achievement
 Presenting Author

9:35 to 11:05am

Pennsylvania Convention Center, Floor: Level 200, Exhibit Hall B

In Event: Sunday Roundtable 9:45 am
 In Roundtable Session: Teacher Perspectives and Supports in Rural and International Settings to Inform Leadership (Table 30)
 On Roundtable Presentation: Unpacking "The Great Resignation": Perceived Value Conflict Themes of Dissatisfied Teachers
 Presenting Author

Davis Clement
 [EXT] 2024 Clark Seminar Invitation
 To: undisclosed-recipients;; Bcc: Kari Smith-Murphy

January 29, 2024 at 1:49 PM
Details

CAUTION: Email Originated Outside of Auburn.

Congratulations on your acceptance to the 2024 David L. Clark Graduate Seminar in Educational Leadership & Policy Studies, produced by the University Council for Educational Administration and sponsored by AERA Division A, AERA Division L, and SAGE Publications. This year's seminar will take place in Philadelphia on Wednesday, April 10, 2024, the day before the AERA 2024 Annual Meeting officially opens. There will be a full day of mentoring sessions, panel discussions, and networking activities, with breakfast and lunch included and an offsite reception that evening.

For the seminar, you will need to prepare an executive summary of your dissertation proposal (12 pages double spaced, excluding references) to distribute to your mentors and peer scholars by Friday, March 22, 2024. You will also need to bring with you to the Seminar 30 copies of a one-page brief of your dissertation proposal. You may view some examples of past briefs here.

There will be two online informational sessions for Clark scholars. The first is Friday, February 2 at 3pm Eastern. The second session will be Friday, March 8 at 3pm Eastern. You will receive an invite with a Zoom link for both sessions. There is different information covered in each session, as well as networking activities and icebreakers, so we recommend attending both sessions.

At your earliest convenience, please RSVP to this invitation at this link. You will receive a separate email with your mentor group information, including contact info for your peer scholars and your Clark mentor faculty. In order to minimize email back-and-forth, please trust that we will let you know everything you need to know at the right time. Below you will find when to expect forthcoming important information.

Around Feb. 15: Clark mentor assignment and contact information, Executive Summary and One-Page Brief specs
Around Mar. 15: Seminar agenda and specific location information

Congratulations again. We are looking forward to meeting you. Hopefully, we'll see you at the first info session on Friday, Feb. 2.

DC
 --
 Davis Clement, Ph.D.
 Assistant Professor of Educational Leadership
 Co-coordinator, M.A. in K-12 Administration
 Co-director, Eastern Michigan Writing Project
 College of Education | Eastern Michigan University

2024 Clark Scholars.pdf