November 8, 2024

Dear Yan Dai,

We are pleased to inform you that your paper, "Researching Nested Influences: Remedying Inequities and Renewing Educational Success for Alabama Children," submitted for consideration for the 2025 AERA Annual Meeting has been accepted. Congratulations on this accomplishment. AERA received more than 11,000 submissions this year. To ensure the highest quality papers presented at the Annual Meeting, your submission was reviewed by highly qualified reviewers serving on a panel constituted by the Division L - Educational Policies and Politics/Division L - Section 7: Social Context and Structural Inequalities. Reviewers' comments are now available on the Online Annual Meeting Program Portal (All Academic) System for your use (see note below).

The 2025 AERA Annual Meeting will take place in Denver, Colorado from Wednesday, April 23 through Sunday, April 27.

The AERA meeting offers a number of session formats to feature high quality research and scholarly work. Your paper has been placed in a Roundtable Session titled, "The intersection of Geography and Policy". Each format involves different modes of presentation. The program schedule will be available on January 17, 2025.

All presenting authors must register for the Annual Meeting no later than March 21, 2025. Individuals who are not listed as presenting authors cannot present at the Annual Meeting. If a presenting author does not register for the meeting by March 21, 2025, their name will be removed as a presenting author. If no presenting author has registered by March 21, 2025, the paper will be removed from the program.

The final deadline for program changes is March 21, 2025. This includes changes to paper titles and presenting and non-presenting authors.

Copies of all 2025 Annual Meeting program related e-mail correspondence sent from the All Academic System, including this email, are available online in your personal "Message Center." This link is available in the Submitter menu of the All Academic System once you have signed in.

Registration and housing for the 2025 Annual Meeting will open in December 2024. Since all presenters must register for the meeting, please register early to take advantage of the Early Bird rates.

If you have additional questions or concerns, please contact the AERA Meetings Team at annualmtg@aera.net or 202-238-3200.

Sincerely,

November 8, 2024

Dear Yan Dai,

We are pleased to inform you that your paper, "Renewing Education Post-Pandemic: Disentangling the Relationship between Motivation, Self-Efficacy and College Students' Academic Engagement," submitted for consideration for the 2025 AERA Annual Meeting has been accepted. Congratulations on this accomplishment. AERA received more than 11,000 submissions this year. To ensure the highest quality papers presented at the Annual Meeting, your submission was reviewed by highly qualified reviewers serving on a panel constituted by the Division C - Learning and Instruction/Division C - Section 2a: Cognitive and Motivational Processes. Reviewers' comments are now available on the Online Annual Meeting Program Portal (All Academic) System for your use (see note below).

The 2025 AERA Annual Meeting will take place in Denver, Colorado from Wednesday, April 23 through Sunday, April 27.

The AERA meeting offers a number of session formats to feature high quality research and scholarly work. Your paper has been placed in a Poster Session titled, "Motivation, Emotion, and Engagement Across Contexts". Each format involves different modes of presentation. The program schedule will be available on January 17, 2025.

Each poster includes an opportunity to deliver an e-Lightning Ed Talk on your work. Selected authors will present their research in a brief, engaging format in the Exhibit Hall. Added for posters in 2024, the Ed Talks become a compelling and inviting part of the program. These talks are designed as 4-minute presentations, followed by 1-2 minutes for questions, and will take place at one of the two designated stages in the poster hall.

Each poster session can accommodate up to 20 presentations across the two stages, scheduled during the same time slot as your poster presentation. After completing the e-Lightning Ed Talk, presenters will return to their posters. For more details on e-Lightning Ed Talks, please click here.

We encourage you to consider this additional participation. If you would like to be considered, please respond via email to EdTalks@aera.net no later than December 10. Use the subject line, "Yes, I would like to give an Ed Talk," and include the title of your submission and all authors in authorship order in your email.

All presenting authors must register for the Annual Meeting no later than March 7, 2025. Individuals who are not listed as presenting authors cannot present at the Annual Meeting. If a presenting author does not register for the meeting by March 7, 2025, their name will be removed as a presenting author. If no presenting author has registered by March 7, 2025, the paper will be removed from the program.

The final deadline for program changes is March 7, 2025. This includes changes to paper titles and presenting and non-presenting authors.
