

Reply | Delete | Junk | ...

Re: 2018 ACA/IAAOC Research Carousel Proposal

Regina Moro <reginamoro@boisestate.edu>

Mon 9/25/2017, 2:44 PM

Elizabeth Mautz; Leslie Wofford; Abigail Holder; Melanie Iarussi

Reply |

Inbox

Dear Elizabeth and all,

Thank you for your submission to the IAAOC Carousel at ACA. I am particularly interested in your topic area as we are hoping to boost our attention to the offender population of our organization. Your proposal is accepted, we look forward to seeing you in the carousel!

I will be in contact in a few months regarding poster formatting, and scheduling.

Dr. Moro

On Mon, Sep 25, 2017 at 12:29 PM, Elizabeth Mautz <ekm0031@tigermail.auburn.edu> wrote:

Hi Ms. Moro. Please accept the proposal below for consideration for the Research Carousel at the 2018 ACA Conference. We are happy to provide additional information, should you have questions.

Thank you for this opportunity and we look forward to your response.

Name(s) of Presenter(s):

1. Elizabeth Kelley Mautz, MPA, MS, CRC (lead) – Kelley has 20+ years serving underrepresented groups, including counseling inmate populations and persons with disabilities. Her research interests are focused in the areas of coping and personal wellbeing in incarcerated settings.

2. Abigail Holder, MEd., NCC - While working on her Masters, Abigail completed her practicum and internship at Ingram State Technical College, which serves incarcerated adults in Alabama. She has used MI with the Ohio Risk Assessment System and with Thinking for a Change, an integrated cognitive behavior change program.