

Dear Abigail Holder,

Your SACES 2018 conference session, has been scheduled as follows:

Session ID: 651

50 minute poster session

10/13/2018 08:00 AM (Eastern Time (US & Canada)), Palisades Foyer - Posters

Based on information provided in the program proposal, your session will appear in the conference program as follows:

Pattern of Female Incarceration: The Presence of Abuse and Substance Misuse with Incarcerated Women

In recent years incarceration for substance misuse has increased while treatment has been limited. Nationwide the female incarcerated population is the fastest growing correctional population according to statistic provided by CSOSA in 2015. The correctional association of New York also found that the majority of women in prison are survivors of domestic violence and childhood abuse. This focuses on the intersection of substance misuse as well as abuse within the incarcerated female population.

Please read the above carefully. If you used special characters or exceeded character allotments, it is possible that your title, abstract, or presenter information truncated when you submitted the proposal. To submit a revision, simply email sacesconference2018@gmail.com and include all the details you are requested be changed. You should receive an email confirmation with the requested change within one week.

Please read on for important notes regarding your session:

- We did our best to minimize scheduling conflicts. If we have inadvertently scheduled you to be two places at once, please let us know right away.
- SACES will initiate communication only with primary presenters listed in the program proposal submission. Please notify any co-presenters regarding scheduling.
- All presenters are responsible for registering for the conference by July 15, 2018. As of May 15th, registration is open. Visit <http://www.saces.org> for all the latest news about the conference including registration, hotel information, pre-conference workshops, events, and program details.
- SACES will provide one LCD projector/screen combo in each content presentation room. Any other A/V needs (e.g., Computer VGA/HDMI adapters, internet access, DVD/CD players, televisions, etc.) are the responsibility of the presenter.
- We will ask that you provide handouts or make your presentation available to participants within one week of the conference.

We look forward to seeing you in Myrtle Beach, SC!

Elizabeth Villares
Professor and Doctoral Program Coordinator
Florida Atlantic University

SACES 2018 Conference Program Chair
SACESconference2018@gmail.com

Dear Abigail Holder,

Your SACES 2018 conference session, has been scheduled as follows:

Session ID: 552

50 minute poster session

10/12/2018 08:00 AM (Eastern Time (US & Canada)), Palisades Foyer - Posters

Based on information provided in the program proposal, your session will appear in the conference program as follows:

The Importance of Empowering Graduate Level Students through Career Development to Pursue Employment

This discussion session is focused on what counselor educators are doing in order to prepare counseling graduate students for the application process for employment in the field. We will focus on what type of services are provided to graduate students in preparation for this transition from graduate studies to employment. The purpose of this presentation is to explore areas of need and improvement to the services and quality of counseling graduate students career development.

Please read the above carefully. If you used special characters or exceeded character allotments, it is possible that your title, abstract, or presenter information truncated when you submitted the proposal. To submit a revision, simply email sacesconference2018@gmail.com and include all the details you are requested be changed. You should receive an email confirmation with the requested change within one week.

Please read on for important notes regarding your session:

- We did our best to minimize scheduling conflicts. If we have inadvertently scheduled you to be two places at once, please let us know right away.
- SACES will initiate communication only with primary presenters listed in the program proposal submission. Please notify any co-presenters regarding scheduling.
- All presenters are responsible for registering for the conference by July 15, 2018. As of May 15th, registration is open. Visit <http://www.saces.org> for all the latest news about the conference including registration, hotel information, pre-conference workshops, events, and program details.
- SACES will provide one LCD projector/screen combo in each content presentation room. Any other A/V needs (e.g., Computer VGA/HDMI adapters, internet access, DVD/CD players, televisions, etc.) are the responsibility of the presenter.
- We will ask that you provide handouts or make your presentation available to participants within one week of the conference.

We look forward to seeing you in Myrtle Beach, SC!

Elizabeth Villares
Professor and Doctoral Program Coordinator
Florida Atlantic University

SACES 2018 Conference Program Chair
SACESconference2018@gmail.com