NMCS Submission Decision

Dear Alexis,

Thank you for submitting a proposal to the 2024 National Multicultural Conference and Summit. We are pleased to inform you that your session, "The Mesearch Paradigm: Navigating Personal Experiences in Research and Empowering Marginalized Voices" has been accepted for a 50-minute Round Table Discussion Session. Please share this information with any co-authors or co-presenters as this email is only sent to the person who submitted it.

We are finalizing the schedule and will let you know your presentation date and time as soon as possible. We will also contact you if we are missing any needed information or documents.

A reminder that all presenters must register for the conference. If you have not yet registered, please visit our website, www.multiculturalsummit.org.

We look forward to gathering, connecting, and learning at the conference and summit. We thank you for your inspiration and contribution to our shared community.

Thank you again for being part of the 2024 NMCS. We look forward to seeing you in January!

You may email me with any questions at melissa.nmcs@gmail.com
