Hi Dalila,

Because you had to reduce the presentation to a 45 minute session, I am proposing a substitution that I believe will be more effective in 45 minutes. We will teach the participants to "Peel the Identity Onion". However, we will only be two presenters as you will see in my substitute proposal. I think this topic will be interesting for Spanish or Portuguese teacher.

The grammar workshop that I originally proposed is not appropriate for a 45 minute session. I did something very similar for ACTFL, and even three hours was a push. However, we had 100 applicants for the workshop which led me to believe that it would be of interest to Spanish teachers.

Thank you for considering my suggestion. I look forward to hearing from you.
