

Congratulations! Your proposal, The Forgotten: A culturally responsive approach to treating LGBTQ African American male youth, has been accepted as a 60-minute Content Session at the 2019 Black Mental Health Symposium (BMHS), at Hilton Charlotte University Place!

The BMHS committee received over 150 proposals, and all proposals were blind-reviewed by at least two individuals prior to disposition by the BMHS chair. We are pleased to have your session represented at this year's Symposium. To confirm your commitment to present at this event, please reply to this email (info@blackmhsymposium.com) by Friday, April 19, 2019.

Please read on for important notes regarding your session:

- BMHS will initiate communication only with primary presenters as listed in the program proposal submission. Please notify any co-presenters regarding this acceptance.
- You will receive notification of the date and time for your presentation by June 30, 2019. When you receive scheduling notification, you will have the opportunity to review title, abstract, and presenter information as will be printed in the conference program. You may make necessary changes at that time.
- All presenters are responsible for registering for the conference by August 1, 2019. You may register at the student discount rate, and early bird registration is open now and closes June 15. On or after June 16, you may register at the increased student rate.
- Discounted hotel accommodations can be made at the Hilton Charlotte University Place by using the following information:
