Thank you so much for submitting your proposal entitled “Who Am I? The trauma experiences of LGBTQ+ people as they make meaning of the self” for consideration for inclusion in the conference program at the 2020 Association for Humanistic Counseling conference in Denver, CO. The conference will be held from May 28th – May 30th, 2020.

On behalf of the Conference Planning Committee, I am delighted to inform you that your proposal has been accepted for presentation at this upcoming conference. The presentation format will be a 50-minute roundtable session.

In early March, we will send you more details, including the day and time of your presentation.

Please note that the main presenter is the contact person and is responsible for notifying all other co-presenters of acceptance, scheduling, and other pertinent information.

All presenters must register for the conference. Early bird registration is extended to March 13, 2020. Register now to receive the early bird registration rate: <https://afhc.wildapricot.org/sys/website/?pageId=1861613>

Please consider booking your hotel reservation through the conference hotel. AHC hotel discount will remain active through May 6th, 2020. <https://www.hyatt.com/en-US/group-booking/DENHY/G-5AHC>

Please let me know if you have any additional questions or comments. Again, if appropriate, please inform your co-presenters about the acceptance of the presentation for the upcoming AHC Conference.

We sincerely look forward to seeing you at the 2020 AHC Conference in Denver, Colorado!

Congratulations,

Paul Smith, 2020 Conference Chair
