Annual Conference on The First-Year Experience

The Annual Conference on The First-Year Experience provides an ongoing forum where higher education professionals can share experiences, concerns, and accomplishments related to supporting student learning, development, and success in the first college year. We invite you to be a part of productive collaborations, conversations, and relationships as we gather in Washington, DC.

Conference Culture

The Annual Conference on The First-Year Experience is designed to provide educators from every segment of higher education a comfortable, welcoming environment to share innovative ideas, programs, tools, and research critical to the learning, development, and success of first-year college students. The conference aims to promote a comprehensive and engaging community open to a diversity of ideas, in which all delegates are given the opportunity and resources to grow personally and professionally. The conference welcomes graduate and undergraduate students, encouraging them to deepen their knowledge of the academic communities of which they are a part.

Early Bird Discount Deadline is January 16, 2020!

Currently the Early Bird Registration is in effect. After the Early Bird Deadline, fees will increase. Be sure to REGISTER and PAY before this deadline to receive the reduced rate. If we do not receive the full payment in our office by January 16, 2020, your registration will be cancelled. Once registration is cancelled, you will need to re-register at the rates in effect at that time as indicated on the registration form. There will be no exceptions to this payment policy.

*If you are registering as a full-time graduate or undergraduate student, you will be required to upload a letter from your advisor, registrar, or dean as proof of full-time enrollment when you select that registration category. Those employed full-time and taking college courses are ineligible.

If you are registering as a Chief Academic Officer, please contact Jennie Duval at jlduval@mailbox.sc.edu to verify whether you qualify for a fee waiver before selecting that registration category.

CAO fee waivers are non-transferrable, and CAO must be accompanied by three or more full fee-paying employees (students and preconference-only participants do not qualify) from the same institution.
