Subject: [EXT] CLD conference proposal

CAUTION: Email Originated Outside of Auburn.

Congratulations!

Your proposal, SLD Identification: Examining the accuracy of dual discrepancy/consistency method, has been accepted for the CLD 45th

International

Conference on Learning Disabilities. Your presentation is scheduled as an interactive paper (poster), on Friday, October 12, from 8-9 AM. The location and number assigned to your poster will be listed in the conference program. Please share this email with your co-presenters, if any, to ensure they register for the conference and to extend our congratulations.

You

will be supplied with a three-fold display board and push- pins to mount your display. Printed posters are preferred.

*Please complete this short survey \(2 questions\) on if your presentation might be included as a practitioner and/or diversity spotlight in the program. Due to an error in the proposal submission process, that information was not saved.

All presenters are required to register for the conference by July 31, 2023, or the session will be canceled. Click here to register for the conference

Remember

that it is the session leader's responsibility to make sure that all co-presenters register for the conference. If there is a change related to your presentation, please inform the conference program chair (sara.flanagan@maine.edu) as soon as possible, but no later than July 31.

This includes the addition or deletion of co-presenters, and changes in presenter name, affiliation, or contact information. Please note that I will send reminders about registration and any further communications about your presentation to this email that you provided with your proposal.

Once again, congratulations and we look forward to seeing you in Denver!

Have

a great day,

Sara
Flanagan
