

Katie Morgan

From: Association for the Study of Higher Education <DO_NOT_REPLY@allacademic.com>
Sent: Wednesday, June 28, 2023 3:42 PM
To: Katie Morgan
Subject: [EXT] Your ASHE 2023 Conference Proposal

Follow Up Flag: Follow up
Flag Status: Flagged

CAUTION: Email Originated Outside of Auburn.

Dear Katie,

We are very pleased to inform you that your proposal titled “Gated Communities: Anti-Blackness in College Recruitment at Historically and Predominantly White Land-Grant Institutions” has been accepted to the Association for the Study of Higher Education’s 2023 General Conference! We hope you will celebrate your acceptance and begin your work for a final paper or session in November.

Accepted Proposal Information

Your presentation format is slated for the in-person Conference in Minneapolis, Minnesota on November 15-18, 2023.

Proposal Title: Gated Communities: Anti-Blackness in College Recruitment at Historically and Predominantly White Land-Grant Institutions

Format of Accepted Presentation: Scholarly Paper (In-Person)

Participant(s):

Katie Morgan, kmm0025@auburn.edu, Auburn University

Nicholas Smith, ncs0024@auburn.edu, --

Travis C. Smith, tcsmith1906@gmail.com, Auburn University

Date and Time: You will be provided with the scheduled date and time in early August. With more than 500 presentations to schedule, we cannot take requests for schedule preferences.

* Please note that you are being contacted because you submitted the proposal. If additional authors/presenters are on your proposal, please notify them of the acceptance.

Reviewers’ comments on your proposal:

For the ASHE 2023 Conference, the Program Committee strived for a reliable, constructive, and equitable process. For a complete description of the proposal review process, click here. The Program Committee hopes the reviewers' feedback is helpful as you continue your work. At least three ASHE members reviewed all proposals.

To access reviewers’ feedback:

1) Go to the ASHE Conference Portal and log in with your ASHE member or Guest login information.

2) Under the "Submitter Menu," click on the "Submitter" link. Once you do this, your submission(s) will be listed.

3) In the "Action" column, click on the "Review Summary" link to access reviewers' comments.

Registration

Presenters for all in-person sessions must be registered for the ASHE General Conference and/or respective Pre-conference(s). The Early Registration deadline is August 5, and the registration deadline for chairs, discussants, and presenters is September 15. This deadline helps the ASHE Staff and Program Committee ensure your attendance at the conference. You can find more information about registration at www.ashe.ws/registration2023.

Information for ASHE 2023 In-Person Sessions

Paper Presentations

If you are presenting a paper (self-designed, scholarly, or research), you must upload a PDF copy of your full paper (no longer than 30 double-spaced pages) for your Discussant and Chair no later than October 31, 2023 at 4:00 pm Central/Minneapolis Time.

Performance, Visual, Digital Scholarship (PVDS) Individual Presentation

If you are delivering work in the PVDS format, you must upload a PDF copy of your full paper (no longer than 30 double-spaced pages) or notes for your Discussant if the final form of your presentation will not be a traditional manuscript. One of these options must be completed no later than October 31, 2023 at 4:00 pm Central/Minneapolis Time.

Interactive Symposium and Performance, Visual, and Digital Scholarship Sessions

If you are delivering your work in an Interactive Symposium or a PVDS Session, please note that you are responsible for coordinating the presenters and the flow of your session. Final papers are not required or able to be uploaded.

Posters

If you are presenting a poster, you must create a poster size 48" high x 36" wide for the in-person Poster Session. A display board will be available to showcase your work.

More information for creating accessible posters will be provided in the 2023 Presenter Guide, which will be available at the end of August. Final papers and PowerPoint Presentations are not required or able to be uploaded.

Works In Progress

If you are delivering your work in a Works in Progress Session, you are encouraged to create material providing an overview of your work, such as a very brief PowerPoint presentation and/or one-page handout focusing on an overview of the project, purpose, and questions to engage the audience. Final papers are not required or able to be uploaded.

Uploading PowerPoint Presentations

All presenters agree to upload their PowerPoint presentations by November 7, 2023 at 4:00 pm Central/Minneapolis Time. We ask presenters to use PowerPoint for its accessibility features. Uploading your PowerPoint allows attendees to preview the presentation materials ahead of time for better engagement with the session as well as allows the captionist/interpreter to preview the presentation to ensure accurate translation of materials. More information for creating accessible presentations will be provided in the 2023 Presenter Guide which will be available at the end of August.

Adding/Removing Authors and Editing Title/Abstract

Once proposals are accepted, some authors may need to make changes, such as adding additional authors, making minor spelling or grammatical changes to their title and/or abstract, or withdrawing from the conference. You can find more information about how to do this at www.ashe.ws/presentationadjustments. No changes will be accepted after July 14, 2023 at Noon Central/Minneapolis Time.

Questions

Answers to frequently asked questions are available at www.ashe.ws/presenterfaq. If you have additional questions, please contact the ASHE Staff at conference@ashe.ws.

In closing, we want to congratulate you on your acceptance. It was a privilege to experience the rigorous, interesting, and creative work within our field.

Sincerely,
2023 Program Committee
Association for the Study of Higher Education