Dear, Alexis Jones, Kareema Smith, Gabrielle Brown, LaKaylyn Washington, Mackenzie Dean, Hyunsung Jang, & Evelyn Hunter:

Thank you for your submission to the Association of Black Psychologists 54th Annual International Convention – Homecoming: (Re)Claiming Our Divine African – Knowing, Being, Doing, & Belonging. This year's convention promises to be a memorable experience as we return to our first face-to-face convention since 2019. The convention will commence on Wednesday, July 19th at 12:00 PM EST (Noon) and conclude on Saturday, July 22nd with the ABPsi Presidential and Student Circle Chair Enstoolment Ceremonies. Please plan your schedule accordingly. Also, there will be preconvention activities on July 18th hosted by the Detroit Chapter of ABPsi.

The Association of Black Psychologists (ABPsi) is pleased to inform you that your abstract, Racism is not getting worse, it's getting filmed": (Re)xploring Vicarious Racism in the Digital Age and Strategies for Radical Healing, has been selected for this year's ABPsi Convention as a paper presentation (pending registration of presenters, if not registered). Your presentation has been scheduled for Wednesday, July 19th from 12:00 – 1:30 PM in Windsor A. In keeping with the theme of the convention: Homecoming: (Re)Claiming Our Divine African – Knowing, Being, Doing, & Belonging, we are confident that this presentation will be one of the highlights of the program. Below you will find a diagram of the room for your presentation.
