Dear Mariah Morton,

On behalf of the 2022 Convention Call for Papers Committee, we are delighted to inform you that the submission listed below has been accepted for presentation at the 2022 NBASLH Convention being held March 17-19, 2022 at the Omni Houston Hotel in Houston, Texas. The selection process was competitive and peer-reviewed. All submissions were reviewed by the Call for Papers Committee with final acceptance and scheduling based on consideration of review rating, innovation, as well as scheduling accommodations and conflicts.

Please carefully read all the information in this message and keep a copy for your records.

Your presentation has been scheduled as follows:

Track: Medical-Based Disorders

Session Number: MBD11

Session Title: Determining Deserts for Medical Speech-Language Pathology Care in Rural Alabama

Session Format: Doctoral Student Research Forum

Session Day: Saturday, March 19th

Session Time: 11:30 am - 12:00 pm

Room: Post Oak C

Note: All presenters (whether for oral sessions or posters) are required to register for the NBASLH Convention and arrange their own travel and accommodations. Additionally, presenters of oral sessions should begin their presentation with a slide and verbal statement indicating learning outcomes, financial/non-financial disclosures, or any potential conflicts. Poster presenters should include a written statement within their visual presentation.

Please confirm your acceptance of your proposal by completing our acknowledgment form by Wednesday, January 19, 2022 at 11:59 pm PST.

We look forward to your scholarly contribution to the 2022 NBASLH Convention. More details regarding convention registration and housing accommodations can be found at www.nbaslh.org. If you have any additional questions or need to withdraw your session, please email nbaslhconvention@gmail.com with your session number in the subject line. Furthermore, please email us with any corrections to the title of your session.

See you in Houston!

Sincerely,

Lauren Hastings & Joy Lennon
