Dear Nekita,

Thank you for your proposal submission to the 2018 ASHE Conference. I am very pleased to inform you that your proposal (identified below) has been accepted for inclusion on this year's conference program. You are being contacted because you submitted the proposal. If there are additional authors/presenters on your proposal, please be sure to notify them of the acceptance.

Title of Proposal: #WokeOrNah: Navigating the Discussion on Higher Education's Role to Address Systemic Injustices Inside and Outside the Academy

Author(s): [[authors]]

Format of Proposal: Interactive Symposium*

* Please note that this may not be the format of your first choice.

If you are delivering a self-designed paper session, consistent with your agreement during the proposal submission process, please upload a copy of the full papers in the session for your discussant on the proposal submission site no later than October 17, 2018. Your uploaded document will not be made public, and will only be visible to participants in your session including your discussant and chair. Should you not upload a paper by the deadline, your discussant may elect only to give cursory feedback or no feedback at all. If you are presenting a roundtable discussion or a poster, you will receive an email message next month explaining the procedures along with your session details.

The reviewers' comments on your proposal are available in the proposal submission site. In your Submitter Menu within the submissions tab, click on "review summary" under the actions header to the right of the proposal title. All proposals were reviewed by at least three reviewers. The Program Committee hopes that the reviewers' feedback will be helpful to you as you continue your work and prepare your presentation.

As you know, the 2018 ASHE Conference will be held in Tampa, FL on November 14-17, 2018. Presenters must register for the conference, and conference registration and hotel information are available on the ASHE conference website. ASHE is pleased to announce that several $400 graduate student scholarships are available for conference travel. Information will be available soon. Congratulations and thank you again for your submission. See you in Tampa!

Sincerely,

Dafina-Lazarus Stewart
