Subject: AESA Individual Acceptance Notification

Dear Kamden Strunk:

Congratulations! I am pleased to inform you that your submission, Examining "Diversity" Research in Educational Psychology: Deficit Discourses and Individualizing Responsibility, has been accepted to the 2019 AESA Annual Conference. Please forward this notice immediately to all your collaborators and/or co-authors.

The Program Committee completed double-blind reviews of all submissions and comments are now available in the All Academic System. To view comments, log in to your All Academic account at <https://convention2.allacademic.com/one/aesa/aesa19/>. Underneath the Submitter Menu, click on 'Read Reviews'.

All program related e-mail correspondence for the 2019 AESA Annual Conference will be sent from the All Academic System and will be available online in your personal "Message Center." This link is available in the Submitter menu of the All Academic System once you have logged in.

The 2019 AESA Annual Conference will take place in Baltimore from October 31–November 3, 2019. Registration for the conference will be available shortly. You can register on the AESA website (www.educationalstudies.org) by clicking on the "2019 Conference" tab, then clicking on the "Registration" tab. Please plan to register early to take advantage of the early bird rate and to have your name tag and registration materials waiting. We encourage you to also attend the unconference, which will be held from 2-5 p.m. on October 30. The purpose of the unconference is to invite AESA scholars and local Baltimore-area community members to collectively co-create a space for organic engagement, critical community building, and dialogue regarding social justice in education. Hotel and other conference-related information is also available on the website and will be sent to the AESA Listserv.

FW: AESA Individual Acceptance Notification

AESA is working to ensure an accessible environment for all attendees of the annual conference. When you register, please check the appropriate box to request accommodation. This includes requests for sign language interpreting or any other special assistance. If you have questions or need additional assistance, you can email the AESA Annual Conference Program Chair Team at aesa2019conference@gmail.com or contact the Executive Director at sspretty50@icloud.com. All requests for accommodations must be received no later than August 1.

PLEASE NOTE that the Executive Council voted several years ago that AESA will no longer provide technology for presentations except for the Kneller, Butts, and Presidential Lectures. You are welcome to bring your own projectors or devices, but note that the hotel will provide no additional accessories (cables, adaptors, extension cords, etc.) or assistance. If you would like to rent equipment from the hotel, please contact Sandra Spickard Prettyman at sspretty50@icloud.com, and she can inquire about pricing and availability.

If you have additional questions or concerns, please contact the 2019 AESA Program Chair Team at aesa2019conference@gmail.com. Congratulations again—we look forward to seeing you in Baltimore!

Sincerely,

Silvia Cristina Bettez, Ph.D.
