[EXT] AESA Individual Acceptance Notification

CAUTION: Email Originated Outside of Auburn.

Dear Payton Hoover,

Congratulations! I am pleased to inform you that after re-reviewing all proposals due to a glitch in the system, your submission, "The Development of Racial Literacy Using Social Media: A Literature Review", has been accepted to the 2021 AESA Annual Conference. Please forward this notice immediately to all your collaborators and/or co-authors.

The Program Committee completed double-blind reviews of all submissions, and comments are now available in the All Academic System. To

Dear Kamden Strunk,

Congratulations! I am pleased to inform you that your submission, "Toward Critical Quantitative Methods in Educational Research", has been accepted to the 2021 AESA Annual Conference. Please forward this notice immediately to all your collaborators and/or co-authors.

The Program Committee completed blind reviews of all submissions, and comments are now available in the All Academic System. All program related e-mail correspondence for the 2021 AESA Annual Conference will be sent from the All Academic System and will be available online in your personal "Message Center." This link is available in the Submitter menu of the All Academic System once you have logged in.

The 2021 AESA Annual Conference will take place in Portland, Oregon from November 3- 7, 2021.

Registration for the conference will be available shortly. When available, you can register on the AESA website (www.educationalstudies.org) by clicking on the "2021 Conference" tab, then clicking on the "Registration" tab. Please plan to register early to take advantage of the early bird rate and to have your name tag and registration materials waiting. Hotel and other conference-related information is also available on the website and will be sent to the AES A Listserv.
