Dear Jessica,

Thank you for submitting a proposal for the Association for Counselor Education and Supervision 2019 Conference. You are receiving this email as the first author of a submitted proposal(s). We received an overwhelming number of excellent proposals this year. Congratulations, your proposal has been accepted! For your information and records, the overall conference proposal acceptance rate this year was 57.69%.

Please read this message carefully because it contains important details about your presentation.

Your presentation day, time, and location are included in this email. For a smoother experience, please use Firefox or Chrome as your browser. To accept or decline your presentation offer, please use the following link:

You must accept your presentation between now and May 15, 2019 at 5pm Central Daylight Time in order to present. If you do not accept your presentation by this time, we will assume you are declining your presentation.

As you agreed to when you submitted your proposal, no changes to your presentation day/time can be made. You may edit your authors and authorship order until June 15 5pm Central Daylight Time only via Cvent. The only changes that may be made after this date are cancellations. Please note, individuals can be listed on two peer-reviewed presentations during the regular conference session only (ACES INFORM is not included in the two-session limit). If a person is listed on more than two presentations, the presentation is subject to cancellation. You are responsible for communicating with your coauthors about presentation decisions, dates, times and locations. Finally, the lead presenter must be registered for the conference August 9.
