Dear Jessica Tyler,

Congratulations on your acceptance for the 2022 WACES Conference. Your WACES 2022 conference session, The Experiences of Collegiality by Early-Career Counselor Educators, has been scheduled as follows:

Session ID: 357

Session type: 50 minute roundtable discussion session

Date, Time, and Room Location: 10/15/2022, 09:00 AM - 09:50 AM, Grand Ballroom I/II, Roundtable 3

Based on the information provided in the program proposal, your session will appear in the conference program as follows:

- Program Title: The Experiences of Collegiality by Early-Career Counselor Educators
- Program Abstract: It is essential to develop a work culture that supports faculty needs, whether professional for promotion and tenure, or personal. This presentation is based on a phenomenological study that examined the lived experiences of collegiality by early-career counselor educators working in a CACREP institution. Relational support, expectations, administration, and doctoral experiences emerged as themes from these narratives. Implications for the field are discussed, and recommendations are provided.

Please read the above carefully. If you used special characters or exceeded character allotments, it is possible that your title, abstract, or presenter information was truncated when you submitted the proposal. To submit a revision, email ryan.reese@osucascades.edu and include all the requested details to be changed. You should receive an email confirmation with the requested change within one week.

Please read on for important notes regarding your session:
