

From: Ponnock, Annette <annette.ponnock@yale.edu>
Sent: Thursday, February 24, 2022 5:32 PM
To: Yan Diane Dai <yzd0038@auburn.edu>
Subject: [EXT] Your Division 15 Submission

CAUTION: Email Originated Outside of Auburn.

Congratulations! We are pleased to inform you that your proposal, College Students' Academic Entitlement, Motivation, and Self-Regulation During the COVID-19 Pandemic, has been accepted for presentation at the 2022 APA Annual Convention for Division 15.

We received many high-quality presentations. All submissions were reviewed by at least three reviewers. The comments from reviewers on your proposal are provided in the table below. We encourage you to take into consideration the reviewers' feedback as you prepare your virtual poster.

More information about preparing and sharing your virtual poster will be forthcoming. We are excited that you will be able to participate in the virtual component of the convention.

Sincerely,

Annette Ponnock and Courtney Hattan
 Division 15 Program Co-Chairs

Reviewer Feedback:

Rating Category

Reviewer	R	Imp	Cur	Coh	W	O	Int	Sci	Comments
1	5	5	5	4	4	2	3	4	I could not understand the difference between your research and the previous studies which you mentioned in the statement of the problem. You must specify the originality of your study more explicitly.
2	5	4	5	4	4	3	3	4	The presentation will be strengthened if you discuss how the pandemic may (or may not) have exacerbated the expected (or unexpected) relations unearthed in your study.
3	5	5	5	5	5	5	5	5
4

Rating Category Key:

R Relevant/of interest to the division and/or theme.

I Importance of work

C Current and timely

C Coherently organized

W Well-written summary

O Original, innovative, creative

I Interactive/creative presentation

S Scientific rigor