Class Policy Statements:

Participation: Students are expected to participate in all class activities in a professional manner. It is the student's responsibility to contact the instructor if assignment deadlines are not met. Students are responsible for initiating arrangements for missed work. Students are responsible for all materials posted by the instructor to the Blackboard course site. (Five points will be deducted from the final grade for each failure to participate in class discussions and activities.) Discussion participation will be evaluated on frequency, professionalism, and scholarly content.

Attendance/Absences: Students are expected to participate in all seminar and on-line discussions and participate in all exercises. Students who anticipate missing more than one on-campus seminar should register for the course as a distance education student (MUSI 7976).

Unannounced quizzes: There will be no unannounced quizzes.

Final exam: There is no final exam.

Due dates and Formats: Homework and course requirements must be submitted in the format indicated by the instructor, including all parts listed, to receive credit. All materials should be cited in APA format and extensive quoting of material is not acceptable. The instructor reserves the right to assign a grade of 0 for any suggestion of plagiarism.

Incompletes: Final semester grades of Incomplete will not be given except in cases of documented illness. Incompletes must be removed by the third week of the following semester.

Loaned materials: Students must return loaned course materials owned by Auburn University to the instructor by the due date given to receive a grade in this course.

Accommodations: Students who need accommodations are asked to arrange a meeting during office hours the first week of classes, or as soon as possible if accommodations are needed immediately. If you have a conflict with my office hours, an alternative time can be arranged. To set up this meeting, please contact me by e-mail. Fax or email a copy of your Accommodation Memo and an Instructor Verification Form to the meeting. If you do not have an Accommodation Memo but need accommodations, make an appointment with the Program for Students with Disabilities at 1244 Haley Center, 844-2096 (V/TT).

Honesty Code: The University Academic Honesty Code and the Tiger Cub Rules and Regulations pertaining to Cheating will apply to this class.

Office Hours and Assistance: The instructor will respond to student email and will also be available for meetings and phone conferences with students on an appointment basis.

Professionalism: Student behavior and participation should adhere to the highest professional standards. Please report any instances of distracting communications from class participants to the instructor. Students should refer to Anti-Harassment & Non-Discrimination for Students, Auburn University Policy on Classroom Behavior, and Policies of the Graduate School, especially those regarding Plagiarism, Academic Progress, and the Graduate School Calendar. Students are also responsible for adhering to university academic deadlines such as those for registration and withdrawal.

The Family Rights and Privacy Act (Public Law 93-380) assures parents that all information concerning their child will be kept confidential. The only person who may access records or information are those who are directly involved with the student's educational program. Educational records cannot be released without the written consent of the parents. In compliance with this federal law, the following guidelines must be followed for students taking this course:

1. All discussion about a student should be conducted with the teacher or university supervisor only.
2. Discussion should be conducted in the privacy of the classroom or the teacher/supervisor's office. (Be aware of listeners in all settings.)
3. You should not discuss students with other parents, agencies, or other students.
4. Limit discussion to those involved with your assignment.
5. When providing reports, class observations, lesson plans for university classes, identify the student by a pseudonym or his/her first name only.
6. Do not violate any of the above guidelines in electronic communications such as e-mail, discussion boards, or stored documents such as word processor files stored in your computer.

Professional Ethics In this course you may be observing music teachers and describing their teaching. All discussion of teachers and their programs are to be confidential, confined to our classroom. Although there is no law except those of slander and libel, professional ethical behavior includes refraining from critical or derogatory statements of teacher and music programs outside of our classroom. You should not discuss teachers or programs in a negative light with other professors, friends, or students. Violation of these ethics creates a bad reputation for your integrity and the integrity of Auburn University and can damage teacher's careers (and your own).

Other: Students must satisfy all course objectives in order to pass this course.

College of Education Professionalism Policy

As faculty, staff, and students interact in professional settings, they are expected to demonstrate professional behaviors as defined in the College's conceptual framework. These professional commitments or disposition are listed below:

- Engage in responsible and ethical professional practices
- Contribute to collaborative learning communities
- Demonstrate a commitment to diversity
- Model and nurture intellectual vitality

Technology: All students are expected to check TigerMail and Blackboard communications regularly. Students are responsible for reading and responding to messages from the instructor in a timely professional manner. Students who send questions in Blackboard mail or discussion board should provide enough information so that the instructor can understand the questions.

All students will be required to submit assignments to the professor electronically, and, are required to know how to do so. Students are responsible for obtaining access to and knowing how to operate standard software such as Microsoft Word and PowerPoint (or Open Office). Students should refer to the "Contacts" page on the Music Education Graduate Student Orientation and Community site or the OIT web page to obtain technical assistance.

Distance students are responsible for knowing how to access the electronic classroom tools and features and for troubleshooting and maintaining their own equipment. At least a 3 Mb broadband Internet service is required and computers should be up-to-date with plenty of RAM. Distance students must have a microphone/headset and webcam and use them correctly upon instructor request for video conferencing. All distance students should work through the Music Education Distance Training Music Education Graduate Student Orientation and Community site well ahead of the beginning of the course.
