REQUIRED TEXT

Pollack, Lindsey. (2012). Getting from College to Career: 90 Things to do Before You Join the Real World. New York, NY: Harper Business.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS

Each student will be required to take the Strong Interest Inventory (SII) for $30 which may be charged to your Bursar Account. If you have already taken this assessment within the past year and you the report, those results may be used.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This is a two (2) credit-hour course that provides students with assistance in making effective career decisions. The course is appropriate for anyone who is interested in evaluating his or her career development or considering a career change. Students learn about and gain personal insight into the process of career decision-making.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

1. To be able to describe and understand the process of career development.
2. To understand how personal characteristics (e.g. interests, values, and skills) influence career development.
3. To become oriented to the socioeconomic world of work as it impacts individual and family career systems.
4. To identify appropriate academic major(s) and/or occupational alternatives in relation to personal characteristics.
5. To learn about and use a variety of information resources to explore academic majors or career options.
6. To understand career development theories and use decision-making skills for life/career planning and management.
7. To formulate plans and strategies for moving toward implementation of life/career goals.
8. To learn about and use skills necessary for successful job placement.

CLASS POLICY STATEMENTS

1. Students are permitted one (1) unexcused absence. Each absence beyond this will result in (2) points reduction of the participation/attendance points. University-approved excused absences are outlined in the University Policies.

<https://sites.auburn.edu/admin/universitypolicies/default.aspx>.

Proof of excused absences must be presented to the instructor. Students are required to be punctual. Tardiness is disruptive and inappropriate classroom behavior. Each incident of tardiness is considered a half-absence and applied toward the one permitted unexcused absence.

2. Cellular telephones, pagers, MP3 players, and other electronic devices (including laptop computers) are to be TURNED OFF during class. Students using these items will receive a (2) point reduction in their participation/attendance evaluation for each incident.

3. Students are required to complete all assigned readings and in-class activities, actively engage in classroom discussion, and submit assignments according to due dates on the course schedule. Quizzes will be given to confirm the completion of reading assignments. Students with unexcused absences will not be permitted to make-up missed in-class activities.
4. All assignments will be submitted electronically via Canvas unless otherwise arranged in advance. All assignments are due at or before the beginning of class on their due date. All assignments submitted after the beginning of class on their due date will be reduced by three (2) points per day. Some assignments will require advanced planning and it is the student's responsibility to plan for these assignments. Failure to do so will result in a grade reduction if assignments are submitted late or not completed.
5. The Student Policy eHandbook URL www.auburn.edu/studentpolicies regarding cheating apply to this class. Any identification of cheating or other academic dishonest will be subject to a failing grade and/or failure of class along with any repercussions from the University.
6. Students who require accommodations need to set up an appointment with meet with the instructor during the first two weeks of class. If you do not have an Accommodation Memo, make an appointment with the Program of Accessibility at 1244 Haley Center, 844-2096 (V/TT).

Participation in class is REQUIRED. A percentage of the final grade is determined by class participation.

CLASS PARTICIPATION GRADING RUBRIC

Excellent: 20 - 25 points

Proactive participation: Leading, originating, informing, or challenging contributions that reflect in-depth study, thought, and analysis of the topic under consideration as well as a demonstrated ability to listen to and build upon the ideas of others.

Satisfactory: 15 - 19 points

Reactive participation: Supportive, follow-up contributions that are relevant and of value, but rely on the leadership and study of others, or reflect opinion rather than study, thought, and contemplation.

Below Average: 10- 14 points

Passive participation: Present, awake, alert, and attentive, but not actively involved.

Unsatisfactory: 0 - 9 points
