NOTE: This schedule is a guide and may be need to be adjusted according to class needs. Guest speakers also may make presentations to this class based on their availability. They will provide valuable information on select topics that reflect current and pertinent practices in the field of transition. As such, information they present is considered to be part of the content for this course and subject to evaluation.

7. Course Requirements/Evaluation:

Assignments/Exams:

- a. Three quizzes (TOTAL 30 points, 10 points each). Quizzes will be a combination of objective and short answer items.
- b. Homework Assignments (TOTAL 25 points, 5 points each):

Homework Assignment: Disability History Review

Visit the Museum of disABILITY Web site <http://disabilityhistoryweek.org/> and read the Disability History Week pages from 1945-1999 on this site. READ the Web pages for all six time periods and be prepared to discuss them in class. Conduct an in depth review of one time period that you were assigned in class. In addition to the information provided at the Museum of disABILITY Web site, you will need to identify one additional resource to answer the Historical Reflection Questions. This additional resource can be another Web site, a video, an article, or a book.

Homework Assignments: Study Guide Questions (Sets1 and 2)

In addition to your textbook readings, you will read a select number of journal articles. You will answer the study guide questions for each article assignment. You will turn in these study guide questions in two parts or sets. The first set of study guide questions will address articles 1-4 and the second will be comprised of study questions for articles 5-8.

Requirements for Study Guide Questions Submissions:

- Study guide questions for each article should be labeled with the article number and the name of the article provided in APA style.
- Include the question with each of your answers.
- Each question should have at least a paragraph response (i.e., three complete sentences minimum).

TNT Modules I, II Complete the online registration for TNT training modules I and II, “Foundations of Transition”, “Assessment for Transition” by going to the Auburn Transition Leadership Institute, Training in Transition Modules (TNT) Web site: (https://fp.auburn.edu/institute/TNT/TNT\_Home.asp). Follow the directions for completing each of the training modules. Print out and submit your certificate of completion of each module.

- c. In-Class Activities (TOTAL 10 points). You will participate in a number of in-class activities throughout this course. These activities may be completed individually or in a group. Assignments for these activities will be varied (e.g., write brief responses, solve problems, or develop a plan). Some activities may require preparation ahead of time, and therefore, homework assignments may serve as a starting point for an in-class activity. The amount of points per in-class activity will typically range from 1 to 3 points, depending on the complexity of the activity. If you are absent, in-class activities cannot be made-up. However, if you provide an excuse that meets university approval, you will be allowed to complete an alternate assignment. It is your responsibility to provide an excuse and to request a replacement assignment.
- d. Assessment for Transition Project (15 points): Identify a youth or young adult between the ages 14-22 (preferably with a disability). Administer the student version of the Transition Planning Inventory-Updated Version (TPI-UV) and the Transition Outcomes Scale. Compare the results of each assessment with the Alabama Transition Standards. Identify the young person’s strengths and weaknesses according to the Alabama Transition Standards’ strands.

- e. Transition Planning Project (20 points): The cumulative project for this course addresses purpose and procedures used in transition planning. This project will include three parts: (1) describing the purpose of transition planning, (2) developing an Individualized Education Program (IEP), and (3) determining needed adult linkages (e.g., vocational rehabilitation). This project will be completed through work completed independently and in groups.

- Part I- Purpose of Planning

Describe the overall purpose of transition planning and why it is important for students with disabilities. (1page, individual)

- Part II- Individualized Education Program for Transition

Develop an Individualized Education Program (IEP) using the information in the case study provided and in your assignment folder on Canvas (group and individual).

- Part III- Adult Service Linkages- Vocational Rehabilitation Services

Write a summary of the steps involved in the referral process and becoming eligible for vocational rehabilitation services. Identify an appropriate employment goal for the case study student's Individualized Plan for Employment (IPE). Indicate the reason for selecting the employment goal (group and individual).

After the written components of this project are completed the groups will reconvene and present their projects on the final day of class.

- f. Poster Presentation Project (TOTAL 25 points-GRADUATE STUDENTS ONLY). Prepare a poster and an accompanying 2-page summary with a reference page including 10 references from peer reviewed journals-APA style. This project is to be completed on any approved area related to transition from school to work. Your textbook for this class cannot be used as a reference. Web sites are discouraged, but if used, no more than two Web sites can be included as references. The paper must be typed, double spaced, and in 12 point font. Poster presentations receiving a grade of 90 or above will be considered for the Future of Transition Student Poster Session Competition (Graduate Student Division) at the Alabama Transition Conference March 5, 2012, at the Marriott Grand National, Opelika, AL.

- Topic submitted = 1 point
- Outline for paper w/ references = 4 points
- Poster and summary paper = 20 points
- 25 points TOTAL

Course Evaluation: Student perception and evaluation of the course is valued by the instructor, the department, and the university. There are specific methods for obtaining student perception and evaluation of the course requested. These evaluation procedures are both formative and summative in nature.

9. Class Policy Statements:

NOTE: The Student Policy eHandbook is no longer in existence. Its replacement is the Student Policy eHandbook; the URL is www.auburn.edu/studentpolicies.

- a. Attendance: Students are expected to attend all classes, and will be held responsible for any content covered in the event of an absence.
- b. Excused absences: Students are granted excused absences from class for the following reasons: illness of the student or serious illness of a member of the student's immediate family, the death of a member of the student's immediate family, trips for student organizations sponsored by an academic unit, trips for university classes, trips for participation in intercollegiate athletic events, subpoena for a court appearance, and religious holidays. Students who wish to have an excused absence from class for any other reason must contact the instructor in advance of the absence to request permission. The instructor will weigh the merits of the request and render a decision. When feasible, the student must notify the instructor prior to the occurrence of any excused absences, but in no case shall such notification occur more than one week after the absence. Appropriate documentation for all excused absences is required. Please see the Student Policy eHandbook for more information on excused absences.
- c. Make-Up Policy: Arrangement to make up a missed major examination (e.g., hour exams, mid-term exams) due to properly authorized excused absences must be initiated by the student within one week of the end of the period of the excused absences(s). Except in unusual circumstances, such as the continued absence of the student or the advent of university holidays, a make-up exam will take place within two weeks of the date that the student initiates arrangements for it. Except in an extraordinary circumstance, no make-up exams will be arranged during the last three days before the final exam period begins.
- d. Written Assignments are expected to be prepared using word processing software, grammatically accurate, and free of spelling and typographical errors. Papers should be written in accordance with the latest edition of the American Psychological Association (APA) Publication Manual. Assignments are to be of a quality that would be expected of a professional.

Assignments must be turned in the day the assignment is due and during the regularly scheduled class time. Also, assignments must be turned in by the student completing the assignment. No late assignments will be accepted unless accompanied by an excuse approved by the university.

If a student misses turning in an assignment and has a university approved excuse, he or she will have one week from the time he or she returns to class to turn in the assignment.

- e. Academic Honesty Policy: All portions of the Auburn University student academic honesty code (Title XII <https://sites.auburn.edu/admin/universitypolicies/Policies/AcademicHonestyCode.pdf> ) found in the Student Policy eHandbook will apply to university courses. All academic honesty violations or alleged violations of the SGA Code of Laws will be reported to the Office of the Provost, which will then refer the case to the Academic Honesty Committee.
- f. Disability Accommodations: Students who need accommodations are asked to electronically submit their approved accommodations through AU Access and to arrange a meeting during office hours the first week of classes, or as soon as possible if accommodations are needed immediately. If you have a conflict with my office hours, an alternate time can be arranged. To set up this meeting, please contact me by e-mail. If you have not established accommodations through the Office of Accessibility, but need accommodations, make an appointment with the Office of Accessibility, 1228 Haley Center, 844-2096 (V/TT).
- g. Course contingency: If normal class and/or lab activities are disrupted due to illness, emergency, or crisis situation, the syllabus and other course plans and assignments may be modified to allow completion of the course. If this occurs, an addendum to your syllabus and/or course assignments will replace the original materials.
- h. Professionalism: As faculty, staff, and students interact in professional settings, they are expected to demonstrate professional behaviors as defined in the College's conceptual framework <http://education.auburn.edu/aboutus/conceptfmwrk.html>. These professional commitments or dispositions are listed below:
  - Engage in responsible and ethical professional practices
  - Contribute to collaborative learning communities
  - Demonstrate a commitment to diversity
  - Model and nurture intellectual vitality

Note: Auburn University Policy on Classroom Behavior: . . . Behavior in the classroom that impedes teaching and learning and creates obstacles to this goal [learning] is considered disruptive and therefore subject to sanctions . . . Students have the responsibility of complying with behavioral standards. . . Examples of improper behavior in the classroom (including the virtual classroom of e-mail, chat rooms, telephony, and web activities associated with courses) may include, but are not limited to the following: arriving after a class has begun, eating or drinking, use of tobacco products, monopolizing discussion, persistent speaking out of turn, distractive talking, including cell phone usage, audio or video recording of classroom activities or the use of electronic devices without the permission of the instructor, refusal to comply with reasonable instructor directions, employing insulting language or gestures, verbal, psychological, or physical threats, harassment, and physical violence. (See Student Policy eHandbook <https://sites.auburn.edu/admin/universitypolicies/Policies/PolicyonClassroomBehavior.pdf>).

10. Justification for Graduate Credit: Students enrolled in RSED 6170 will be required to complete additional coursework to demonstrate their ability to critically analyze professional literature in the field of transition and to evaluate and report their findings.
