COURSE CONTENT AND SCHEDULE

Weeks 1-15 Directed professional experience at the placement sites. (Note: Elementary and secondary placements are required for N-12 certification).

In order to prepare students for N-12 certification, the internship is divided between an elementary and a secondary school. The exact schedule of activities during the internship assignments is contingent upon school schedules and calendars and will be determined collaboratively for each intern by the university supervisor, the cooperating public school teachers (elementary and secondary placements), and the intern.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS/EVALUATION

Students will complete all of the internship requirements specified by the College of Education, any additional requirements as specified in the internship orientation meetings, and unique requirements required by the cooperating schools (elementary and secondary placement required for N-12 certification in Music Education).

Interns evaluate their own performances each week, through their daily journal entries, weekly log sheets, and the Professional Work Samples. Interns will also be evaluated by the university supervisor (who will observe the intern a minimum of four times) and the cooperating teacher. All abilities cited in objectives must be demonstrated in order to pass.

Each intern will complete the following during the internship experience (see attached for more specific details)

1. Weekly Plan/Lesson Overviews for Upcoming Week (Due EVERY Sunday evening)
2. Weekly Journal Entries for Previous Week (Due EVERY Sunday evening)
3. Initial Philosophy – use the philosophy you have already written, or rewrite.
4. Final Philosophy and Analysis of Changes – consider the philosophy you completed at the beginning of the semester. Rewrite if necessary, then describe why it changed or did not change.
5. Résumé – complete your résumé before the Education Interview Day and submit. Your supervisor will look over it and make suggestions.
6. Elementary Placement Unit – 3-5 interrelated lesson plans for lessons you taught
7. Elementary Placement Professional Work Sample, based on your unit that you taught
8. Secondary Placement Unit or Musical Analysis with Rehearsal Plan for a piece that you taught
9. Secondary Placement Professional Work Sample, based on the rehearsal plan that you taught
10. All copies of documents/files/resources you create for each placement (concert programs, worksheets, PowerPoints, etc.) – must have something from each placement.

Evaluation:

The Alabama State Board of Education requires all students completing teacher certification programs to be assessed using the Alabama Quality Teaching Standards and program-specific standards. Assessments used during internship to assess these standards are (1) the Professional Work Sample, (2) PEPE, (3) the Inventory of Candidate Proficiencies, and (4) Music Education Abilities Evaluation Form. These assessments are conducted at each placement (elementary and secondary). Information regarding the following is provided in the attachments:

- Directions and rubrics for key assessments – Internship Handbook
- Alignment of state standards with the College's 15 candidate proficiencies – performance assessment templates
- Alignment of candidate proficiencies with the key assessments

The final internship grade (S, U) is determined by the university supervisor and the cooperating teachers based on the key assessments that include a holistic evaluation of the student's performance throughout the semester (e.g., Inventory of Candidate Proficiencies).

There will be no unannounced quizzes.

CLASS POLICY STATEMENTS FOR INTERNSHIP

Participation: Students are expected to participate in ALL internship activities, discussions, and complete all assignments by the due dates set forth by their university supervisor(s). It is the student's responsibility to contact his/her supervisor if assignment deadlines are not met. Students are responsible for initiating arrangements for missed work.

Disability Accommodations: Students who need accommodations in class, as provided by the American Disabilities Act, should arrange a confidential meeting with the instructor during office hours the first week of classes- or as soon as possible if accommodations are needed immediately. You must bring a copy of your Accommodation Memo and an Instructor Verification Form to the meeting. If you do not have these forms but need accommodations, make an appointment with the Program for Students with Disabilities, 1244 Haley Center, 844-2096.

Honesty Code: The University Academic Honesty Code and the Tiger Cub Rules and Regulations pertaining to Cheating will apply to this class.

College of Education Professionalism Policy: As faculty, staff, and students interact in professional settings, they are expected to demonstrate professional behaviors as defined in the College's conceptual framework. These professional commitments or dispositions are listed below:

- Engage in responsible and ethical professional practices
- Contribute to collaborative learning communities
- Demonstrate a commitment to diversity
- Model and nurture intellectual vitality

Policy for Professionalism in Music Education for Internship:

To help ensure each student's professional success, the following policies have been implemented for Internship. In addition, students are expected to follow the College of Education Professionalism Policy. Any student who does not adhere to the following policies will be in danger of removal from internship which will result in a grade of "U" (failing) and may result in removal from the music education program. See consequences below for more detail.

Attendance and Professional Behavior

Students must attend all required days of internship. Any missed days must be either approved by the supervisor and teacher ahead of time or must be because of documented illness, and must be made up at the end of the placement at the discretion of the teacher. If not, a grade of "U" (failing) will be assigned.

Students must arrive at their internship placements by the time designated by the teacher, school personnel, and/or university supervisor. For internship, this time must be prior to the beginning of the school day. For practicum, if the placement occurs at the beginning of the school day, arrival time must be before the beginning of the school day. Any tardiness may result in removal from practicum or internship and result in a grade of "U" (failing) for the course, depending on situation. Cooperating teachers will be asked to report any absences, tardies, or other unprofessional behavior.

Students must stay at the internship placement each day as long as the cooperating teacher is on duty. The ONLY exception is for Classroom Management class. Students must leave their placements in time to attend Classroom Management classes.

The Family Rights and Privacy Act (Public Law 93-380) assures parents that all information concerning their child will be kept confidential. The only person who may access records or information are those who are directly involved with the student's educational program. Educational records cannot be released without the written consent of the parents. In compliance with this federal law, the following guidelines must be followed for students taking this course:

1. All discussion about a student should be conducted with the teacher or university supervisor only.
2. Discussion should be conducted in the privacy of the classroom or the teacher/supervisor's office. (Be aware of listeners in all settings.)
3. You should not discuss students with other parents, agencies, or other students.
4. Limit discussion to those involved with your assignment.

5. When providing reports, class observations, lesson plans for university classes, identify the student by a pseudonym or his/her first name only.
6. Do not violate any of the above guidelines in electronic communications such as e-mail, discussion boards, or stored documents such as word processor files stored in your computer.

Professional Ethics In this course you will be observing music teachers and describing their teaching. All discussion of teachers and their programs are to be confidential, confined to our classroom and the instructor's office. Although there is no law except those of slander and libel, professional ethical behavior includes refraining from critical or derogatory statements of teachers and music programs outside of our classroom. You should not discuss teachers or programs in a negative light with other professors, friends, or students. Violation of these ethics creates a poor reputation for your integrity and the integrity of Auburn University and can damage teacher's careers (and your own).

Dress Code for Field Experiences Students must dress professionally and appropriately and be aware they will be working with students from ages 4 or 5 through ages 18 and 19 (or older in some cases). Both men and women must wear dress shoes. No flip-flops. No tennis shoes. All clothing should fit appropriately. Shirts, pants and/or should be neither too tight nor too loose and they should be modest in nature. No blue jeans should be worn. Men should wear dress pants and either a button-up or polo-style shirt (or suit if preferred). A tie may be required. Women should wear dress pants or skirt and a blouse/shirt that reaches at least to the waist and is not cut too low in front or back. Skirts should be at or below the knee in length. Check before wearing cropped/Capri-type pants. They may not be acceptable. Your best bet to go conservative and dressed for a good impression each day. You never know when a person is considering you for a job or considering to give a positive or negative reference.

Consequences for Unprofessional Behavior

Failure to adhere to any of the above policies will result in the following actions being taken. These consequences may be carried from previous semesters/years and into subsequent semesters and/or year(s), depending on situation. Furthermore, in certain situations, the consequence may be immediate removal from class or practicum and/or music education program.

1. First – Meeting with music education faculty members. During this meeting it will be determined what the student must do to remain in the course sequence and a contract/agreement will be written. In addition, at this time, discussion of whether the student may continue in the music education program will occur which may result in removal. Contract/Agreement and/or Memorandum of meeting placed in student's file. Program Coordinator reports to Department Head.
2. Second – Depending on terms of previous contract/agreement, removal from practicum/internship. If not removal, subsequent consequences will be defined at this time.

Contingency Statement If normal class and/or lab activities are disrupted due to illness, emergency, or crisis situation (such as an H1N1 flu outbreak), the syllabus and other course plans and assignments may be modified to allow completion of the course. If this occurs, an addendum to your syllabus and/or course assignments will replace the original materials. See Dr. Kuehne if you have questions about this addendum.

Other: Students must satisfy all course objectives in order to pass this course.

PROFESSIONAL WORK SAMPLE BASIC GUIDELINES

PLANNING

Complete your lesson plan. Then respond to the following questions. Attach your lesson plan to your responses.

1. What are your learning outcomes and why did you choose them?
2. How will you determine if all students made progress toward achieving the learning outcome(s)?
3. Why did you choose the instructional materials and/or procedures?
4. How do your lesson plan and/or the learning environment promote student engagement and encourage supportive interactions?
5. How does your lesson plan acknowledge and value the diversity of your students?

IMPLEMENTATION

Arrange for your internship supervisor and/or your cooperating teacher to observe your lesson. Conduct a brief pre-conference with the observer(s) and share an overview of the lesson including the learning outcome(s). Ask your observer(s) to take notes on the following:

1. Examples of student insights and/or high levels of engagement
2. Examples of student confusion and/or lack of engagement
3. More and less effective parts of the lesson including notes on how characteristics of effective teaching explain differences in the effectiveness of these parts (e.g., characteristics listed on the PEPE-based instrument or identified in effective teacher research)

REFLECTION

After the lesson, facilitate a discussion with your observer(s) that focuses on the following questions. Respond to the questions yourself before asking your observer(s) for their insights.

1. Did all students make progress toward achieving the learning outcomes? What evidence did you observe during the lesson?
2. How did student insights and/or confusion influence the implementation of the lesson? to support your response?
3. What parts of the lesson were more effective? What characteristics of effective teaching explain the effectiveness of these parts?
4. What parts of the lesson were less effective? What characteristics of effective teaching are relevant when considering how to improve these parts of the lesson?

After the discussion, write a one paragraph summary for each of the four items above to recap the discussion. Also, write a one paragraph response to each of the following two items:

1. What insights did you gain from the discussion? How might you make use of these insights to improve future lessons?
2. In what ways was technology useful as you planned, implemented, or reflected on the lesson or how could technology have been useful in planning, implementing, or reflecting on this lesson?

ANALYSIS OF STUDENT LEARNING

Carefully analyze post-assessment data and, if appropriate, pre-assessment data. Post-assessment data could address learning outcomes for a single lesson or outcomes that span multiple lessons. Write a one paragraph response to each of the following questions:

1. What did the assessment data reveal about the learning of all students? Attach the data and supporting artifacts such as samples of the assessment, rubrics, and student work samples.
2. What additional insights do you have about student learning that are not captured by the data?
3. How did you use data to inform subsequent instruction or how will you use data to inform future instruction?
