- 6. COURSE CONTENT: Supervisors will have meetings on campus as announced. Supervisor schedules on-site field visits during which the laboratory experience is discussed and evaluated.

7. REQUIREMENTS

TIME REQUIREMENTS

For every 1-hour of practicum, students should spend a minimum of 12 hours per week at the practicum site. Students should be at the school a minimum of 3 days a week, 4 hours a day during the entire semester.

GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR ASSUMING TEACHING RESPONSIBILITIES

As a general rule, practicum students should be allowed a certain amount of observation time (1-2 weeks) in order to familiarize themselves with the students and the settings. Then, they should teach lessons using the teacher's lesson plans (about 2 weeks). Finally, they should write and teach their own lesson plans for the remainder of the semester. However, this tentative timeline for assuming responsibility can be altered depending on the level of experience of the practicum student and the particular class setting.

PRACTICA ASSIGNMENTS

Throughout your practica placements, you will be expected to complete the assignments/activities/projects listed below. At the beginning of each placement, sit down with your cooperating teacher and identify those assignments/activities/projects that would be appropriate and feasible to complete during the practicum. In order to provide documentation of the completion of the assignments and verification of your hours, you are to organize a notebook that you will add to for each practica. Your notebook should be organized as follows:

- A. Attendance verification sheets
- B. Cooperating teacher and university supervisor evaluations
- C. Self-evaluations
- D. Completed assignments

8. GRADING AND EVALUATION: Grades will be either S (satisfactory) or U (unsatisfactory). Evaluation will occur based on the following:

80%-100% of points AND met all professional dispositions = S (satisfactory)

0-79% of points AND/OR did not meet all professional dispositions = U (unsatisfactory)

In addition to meeting the Special Education Program requirements for receiving an S (satisfactory) for practicum are as follows:

- All assignments must be turned in.
- Revisions must be made to assignments until they are considered satisfactory by the supervisor and/or cooperating teacher. Revisions are due within 3 days of receiving feedback.
- Student must meet professional dispositions as detailed in the syllabus. The student may be assigned a U (unsatisfactory) in the course for failure to demonstrate professional dispositions regardless of supervisor and cooperating teacher evaluations.
- Students must adhere to all policies outlined in the syllabus, COE handbook, and special education student handbook.
- Students must earn ratings of approaching competence or higher on final evaluations.
- Required practicum portfolio components (attendance, all evaluations, PWS if applicable to semester) turned in at last meeting.

9. CLASS POLICY STATEMENTS:

Professionalism/Dispositions: As students interact in professional settings, they are expected to demonstrate professional behaviors as defined in the College's conceptual framework. These professional commitments or dispositions are listed below:

- Engage in responsible and ethical professional practices
- Contribute to collaborative learning communities
- Demonstrate a commitment to diversity
- Model and nurture intellectual vitality

Attendance: All absences must be excused. No more than 2 excused absences are permitted. Students must call supervisor and cooperating teacher on cell to inform of absence in advance. All absences must be made up prior to the end of the final examination period. At the discretion of individual instructors, verified absences may be excused under unusual circumstances (see the Student Policy eHandbook at www.auburn.edu/studentpolicies). In order for the absence to be considered excusable, however, the instructor must be in receipt of the documentation within seven days from the class in which the absence occurred. Students are expected to arrive to practicum on time. Two unexcused tardies are equivalent to 1 absence. For practicum, all excused absences must be made up during finals period with approval from cooperating teacher and university supervisor. If the cooperating teacher dismisses due to testing, ask if you can observe in the severe classroom. Any teacher-initiated absences must be approved by the supervisor.

Assignments: All assignments should be typed and prepared in a professional manner (e.g., neat, correct grammar, spelling), following APA guidelines when appropriate. All assignments must be completed and submitted via Canvas. Failure to complete any assignment will cause student to receive an unsatisfactory grade in current practicum placement.

Additionally, assignments are due on the date listed in the syllabus. For each day an assignment is late, 10% will be deducted from the final earned grade for the assignment. Demonstrating responsible and ethical professional practices is included in the professional dispositions. More than 2 late assignments will be considered a failure in meeting this standard. Failure to meet all professional dispositions will result a grade of U (unsatisfactory) in the course.

Dress Code: Auburn students project the image of their own emerging professionalism and the overall program. Attire that could present a health or safety problem or could be disruptive is not appropriate. With this in mind, the following rules concerning dress and grooming are mandatory for all students participating in clinical experiences, practica, and internship. These regulations are based on those of schools and early intervention programs in which graduates of the program will be working.

- (1) Students keep their hair clean, groomed, and away from the eyes and face.
- (2) Students wear closed-toed shoes/foot garments.
- (3) Students are neat and clean at ALL times.
- (4) Clothing is clean and in a state of good repair.
- (5) Clothing and personal items are free of logos, words, draws, pictures, and other images.

Exceptions: Auburn University related logos covering an area of less than 3 square inches.

- (6) Clothing covers the body in a professional manner.
- (7) Tattoos and non-traditional piercings must not be visible.

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: Students who need accommodations are asked to electronically submit their approved accommodations through AU Access and to arrange a meeting during office hours the first week of classes, or as soon as possible if accommodations are needed immediately. If you have a conflict with office hours, an alternate time can be arranged. To set up this meeting, please contact your supervisor by e-mail. If you have not established accommodations through the Office of Accessibility, but need accommodations, make an appointment with the Office of Accessibility, 1228 Haley Center, 844-2096 (V/TT).

Academic Honesty Policy: All portions of the Auburn University student academic honesty code (Title XII) found in the Student Policy eHandbook (www.auburn.edu/studentpolicies) will apply to university courses. All academic honesty violations or alleged violations of the SGA Code of Laws will be reported to the Office of the Provost, which will then refer the case to the Academic Honesty Committee.

Auburn University Policy on Classroom Behavior: The following policy applies to all settings (i.e., university, school setting, and off campus locations pertaining to the internship experience). “. . . Behavior in the classroom that impedes teaching and learning and creates obstacles to this goal [learning] is considered disruptive and therefore subject to sanctions . . .

Students have the responsibility of complying with behavioral standards. . . Examples of improper behavior in the classroom (including the virtual classroom of e-mail, chat rooms, telephony, and web activities associated with courses) may include, but are not limited to the following: arriving after a class has begun, eating or drinking, use of tobacco products, monopolizing discussion, persistent speaking out of turn, distractive talking, including cell phone usage, audio or video recording of classroom activities or the use of electronic devices without the permission of the instructor, refusal to comply with reasonable instructor directions, employing insulting language or gestures, verbal, psychological, or physical threats, harassment, and physical violence.” (See Student Policy eHandbook at www.auburn.edu/studentpolicies).

Course Contingency: If normal class and/or lab activities are disrupted due to illness, emergency, or crisis situation, the syllabus and other course plans and assignments may be modified to allow completion of the course. If this occurs an addendum to your syllabus and/or course assignments will replace the original materials.
