

Strategic Planning, April 26-27

Hi,

You likely got the message from Wendy regarding the AirBnb reservation. The house may even look a little familiar. :)

So the plan is

- Travel in Thursday evening, April 25 (all but Brian)
- Work all day Friday, April 26 and morning of Saturday, April 27
- Convene by noon on April 27

Please make travel arrangements accordingly. We are assuming that Wendy and Alyson will stay at the AirBnb like last time, and the others will make other arrangements. Let Wendy know if anything changes.

Thanks! Looking forward to another productive gathering!
