

Science Education Consortium (SSEC) Conference  Summarize

1. Amy <allenamy@vt.edu>

Sara Demoiny

  Reply  Reply all  Forward

Thu 11/20/

der allenamy@vt.edu is from outside your organization.

warded this message on Thu 11/20/2025 7:00 PM

ember 20, 2025

Dr. Demoiny,

re thrilled to let you know that your presentation, "Integrating Diverse Narratives in a Historic Site in Alabama," has been accepted for the 2026 Social Science Education Consortium (SSEC) Conference in Cuba! Your proposal was peer-reviewed by a panel of your peers, and we're delighted to include your contribution in a panel that promises to be a memorable and intellectually rich gathering. Reviewer comments are provided below to help you prepare your session. Congratulations - We can't wait for you to join us! Please pass the news on to any co-presenters.

Reference Details

Location: Hotel Quinta Avenida, Havana, Cuba

Registration Opens: January 1, 2026

Registration Due: January 20, 2026 (nonrefundable)

Official schedule and full registration fee details will be available on December 1, 2025. We anticipate a registration fee of $550 per conference attendee, including meals, transportation, and entrance fees for the full itinerary of all conference activities.

Participants are required to stay at the conference hotel during the event. Do not make a reservation; SSEC will facilitate the reservation process. Rates for five nights including breakfast are as follows:

Single Room Occupancy: $685

Double Room Occupancy (one queen bed): $740

Triple Room (two queen beds): $800

We are also planning poolside presentation sessions! These sessions are designed for relaxed, technology-free discussions that spark conversation and collaboration. Please let us know if your presentation would be a good fit for one of these sessions.

For more information and to view the full details, including your session's format and schedule, will be announced once finalized. If you need to update your presentation title or author list, please let us know.

Search

