ALMA MATER AND NATIONAL ANTHEM

ALMA MATER

On the rolling plains of Dixie
'Neath the sun kissed sky
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
Banners high.

To thy name we'll sing thy praise
From hearts that love so true
And pledge to thee our loyalty
The ages through.

We hail thee, Auburn, and we vow
To work for thy just fame,
And hold in memory as we do now
Thy cherished name.

Composed by Bill Wood, 1924
Word Revision, Emma O'Rear Foy, 1960

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

O say can you see,
by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd
at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars,
through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd,
were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare,
the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night
that our flag was still there.
O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Music by John Stafford Smith, 1780
Lyrics by Francis Scott Key, 1814
Adopted as the national anthem of the United States, 1931

BETH THORNE STUKES

Beth Thorne Stukes has distinguished herself through a lifetime of service to education, philanthropy and community leadership, leaving an enduring impact on Auburn University and communities across Alabama.

A former educator, Stukes taught for 16 years in Walker County schools, where she witnessed firsthand the power of education to shape lives and strengthen communities. That conviction has remained central to her life's work and continues to guide her leadership and service.

At Auburn, Stukes has been a devoted advocate for students and a steadfast champion of the university's mission. She served as president of the Women's Philanthropy Board, the flagship program of the Cary Center for the Advancement of Philanthropy and Nonprofit Studies in the College of Human Sciences from 2021 to 2023 and remains active in its executive leadership. She also has served as chair of the Auburn University Foundation Board and currently serves as vice chair of the College of Human Sciences Dean's Board of Advisors. Through these roles, she has helped advance scholarships, faculty excellence and academic facilities that enrich the student experience and strengthen the university for generations to come.

Stukes also played a significant leadership role in Because This Is Auburn, the university's first fundraising campaign to surpass $1 billion. Her service helped inspire philanthropic investment that expanded opportunities for students, supported faculty and advanced Auburn's long-term vision as a leading land-grant institution.

Her devotion to Auburn is rooted in family legacy and a profound belief in education's ability to transform lives. She credits her father, Dr. Buddy L. Thorne, and his love for Auburn Athletics as her earliest introduction to the university. In honor of their late mother, Barbara Drummond Thorne, Stukes and her sisters, Barbara "Babs" Thorne Anderson and Rebecca "Becky" Thorne Carroll, made a lead gift to Auburn's College of Human Sciences to support construction of the Barbara Drummond Thorne Academic and Research Facility, a lasting tribute to their mother's love of Auburn and commitment to learning.

Beyond Auburn, Stukes has been a force for philanthropy and community development throughout Alabama. Through the Walker Area Community Foundation and other civic initiatives, she has supported efforts in literacy, recreation, disaster recovery and long-term community revitalization, including recovery efforts following the devastating April 27, 2011, tornadoes. Her service also extends across higher education, business and faith-based outreach. She serves on the Samford University Board of Trustees and as a director of the Drummond Company, while remaining active in service through First Baptist Church of Jasper.
