AUBURN UNIVERSITY FALL COMMENCEMENT

CONGRATULATIONS

To the Class of 2019,

Today marks a great accomplishment in your lives. You, and your families, have invested a great deal to make your graduation a reality and have every right to be proud. This is a truly remarkable achievement. Savor this rare moment in time.

As you make plans toward beginning your respective careers, I sincerely urge you to reap the benefits that come with attaining one of the finest educations available in this rich and blessed country. Earning a college degree does not signal the end of the learning experience. Continue asking questions throughout life, and never stop learning. You have the potential to go beyond the standards set by society. You have the potential to surpass many of the challenges life will place in front of you.

During your time here, you lived an Auburn experience that was all your own. Those memories of Auburn will become more treasured as the years pass. Wherever you go in life, a part of this great university goes with you. While you are not alone in earning an Auburn degree today, I gladly remind you that you are, and will always be, a member of the Auburn Family.

Good luck and War Eagle!

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Jay Gogue". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Jay" being more prominent than the last name "Gogue".

ALMA MATER AND NATIONAL ANTHEM

ALMA MATER

On the rolling plains of Dixie
'Neath the sun kissed sky
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
Banners high.

To thy name we'll sing thy praise
From hearts that love so true
And pledge to thee our loyalty
The ages through.

We hail thee, Auburn, and we vow
To work for thy just fame,
And hold in memory as we do now
Thy cherished name.

Composed by Bill Wood, 1924

Word Revision, Emma O'Rear Foy, 1960

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

O say can you see,
by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed
at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars,
through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched,
were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare,
the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night
that our flag was still there.
O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Music by John Stafford Smith, 1780

Lyrics by Francis Scott Key, 1814

Adopted as the national anthem of the United States, 1931

MICHAEL O'NEILL

A native of Alabama, Michael O'Neill holds a degree in economics from Auburn University. He began his acting career under the mentorship of Will Geer, and his daughter Ellen, at the Theatricum Botanicum in Los Angeles.

O'Neill is a renowned actor who will soon be seen as "Larry Mills" in the new NBC drama series, Council Of Dads, and as "Chaplain Kendricks" in the feature film, Clemency, which won the 2019 Sundance Film Festival Grand Jury Prize. Recent appearances for O'Neill include the series' Jack Ryan, The Romanoffs, The Resident, 11.22.63, Shooter, S.W.A.T., and the final season of Scandal. Previous television credits include his four seasons on the award winning Sundance TV series, Rectify; the CBS series, Extant with Halle Berry; and A&E's Bates Motel. O'Neill's TV roles include Grey's Anatomy, The West Wing, Necessary Roughness, Vegas, The Grim Sleeper, NCIS, Sons of Anarchy, and The Unit.

In feature films, O'Neill played FDA Agent "Richard Barkley" in the award winning Dallas Buyers Club. His vast credits include J. Edgar, Green Zone, Transformers, Secondhand Lions, Traffic, Sea of Love, and Seabiscuit. He recently completed two feature films, The Stand at Paxton County and Indivisible.

O'Neill has served on the board of the Hollywood Branch of the Screen Actors Guild. He has often participated in the SAG-AFTRA Foundation's BookPALS program by reading to elementary school children. He has also been involved in Teach for America, Habitat for Humanity, and Focus on Recovery in Birmingham, Alabama.

O'Neill is married to Mary O'Keefe O'Neill and they have three daughters, Ella, Annie, and Molly.

ROBERT DUMAS

Robert W. Dumas is chairman, president, and CEO of AuburnBank and Auburn National Bancorporation, Inc. He was appointed to the Board of Trustees by former Gov. Robert Bentley and confirmed by the Senate on April 10, 2012, to represent the 3rd District.

Dumas earned a bachelor's degree in business administration with a major in finance from Auburn University in 1976. He is actively involved in many civic and charitable organizations within the Lee County community and has served on the Auburn University College of Business Advisory Council. He currently serves as a director of the Alabama Bankers Association and has previously served as chairman of the association. He also serves as a director of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta and the East Alabama Medical Center. He is a lifetime member of the Auburn Alumni Association and is married to the former Martha Butz, who holds two degrees from Auburn University. Their two children are also graduates of Auburn University and both reside in Auburn with their families.

PROVOST BILL HARDGRAVE

Bill Hardgrave began serving as Auburn University's provost and senior vice president for academic affairs in January 2018. As chief academic officer and president of the Auburn Research and Technology Foundation, Hardgrave leads Auburn's colleges and schools and oversees the institution's instruction, research, and outreach programs. Hardgrave served as dean and Wells Fargo Professor of the Harbert College of Business from August 2010 through December 2017. In that role, Hardgrave oversaw the growth of the college and launched the Auburn University RFID (radio frequency identification) Lab, the Geospatial Research and Applications Center, and the Center for Supply Chain Innovation.

Prior to Auburn, Hardgrave held the Bradberry Chair in information systems in the Sam M. Walton College of Business at the University of Arkansas and served as executive director of the Information Technology Research Institute, which he established in 1999. He is an internationally recognized scholar in the field of information systems and has published several books and articles in leading academic journals.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic regalia worn during graduation is based on attire from the 12th and 13th centuries when universities were being established. Academic dress and accoutrements have been used in higher education in the United States since colonial times. To maintain tradition and recognition of academic regalia, the symbolism of pattern and color have remained largely unchanged since the Middle Ages. In 1895, an intercollegiate commission adopted a standardized code for the use of academic gowns, hoods, and caps, which included regulation of style and materials. Colors were prescribed to represent different fields of learning. Since then, the majority of colleges and universities in the United States, including Auburn, have upheld the code.

GOWNS

Except for a few universities, academic gowns are all black. The bachelor's gown is the simplest of the three types. The master's gown is similar but has sleeves with an extra long extension. Representing the highest degree, the doctoral gown is fuller throughout and has pleated bell-shaped sleeves. It is trimmed with a velvet band that circles the neck and descends the front, and it has velvet bars on the sleeves.

ACADEMIC HOODS

Academic hoods have endured as the sign of a scholar, and increased symbolism through color and material. Master's hoods are edged in velvet in the color of the candidate's major field. The hood's satin lining shows Auburn's official colors. A doctoral hood is longer and larger than the master's. A doctor of philosophy's hood has dark blue velvet-bound edges and the doctor of audiology has green.

The orange and blue satin lining shows that the degree was conferred at Auburn University. The faculty who march in the academic processional show a range of colors marking their diverse fields, degrees, and institutions.

The traditional rule for academic hoods is that a candidate for a degree should not wear the hood until the degree is conferred. However, at Auburn, master's degrees are conferred en masse, therefore degree candidates wear hoods throughout the ceremony. Doctoral degree recipients are hooded by their major professor during the ceremony. These candidates do not wear the hood during the academic processional, but receive their hood when the degree is conferred.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

CAPS AND TASSELS

A black mortar board is the typical headwear worn, with some faculty wearing black tams. All caps have tassels. Students earning a bachelor’s degree have tassel colors representing their fields. They begin the ceremony with the tassels on the right front side; after all degrees are conferred, they are instructed to move the tassels to the left side. Faculty and candidates for master’s and doctoral degrees already wear their gold tassels on the left side.

STOLES, CORDS, AND MEDALS

In addition to the orange stoles worn by student marshals, some graduates wear regalia signifying academic achievements or membership in organizations, primarily academic honor societies. Students graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, or cum laude wear yellow cords. The Honors College recognizes its graduates with silver medals. Students inducted into Phi Kappa Phi, an honor society incorporating all fields of study, may wear cords of interwoven gold and blue. Some schools and colleges have honor societies unique to their discipline, and students selected for membership wear stoles, cords or medallions representing them. Like hoods, each color and pattern is unique to the honor.

ACADEMIC SYMBOLS

MACE

In ancient Rome, what would later be called a mace was carried at the head of processing civil authorities. By the Middle Ages, the Catholic Church similarly used a mace, which also became associated with the civil authority of monarchies. Today, the United Kingdom's House of Commons still presents a mace to mark the opening of daily sessions being open and legal. The U.S. House of Representatives adopted this practice in 1789, establishing the tradition of the Sergeant at Arms carrying the mace into the chamber to be placed near the Speaker of the House.

As an established symbol of authority, maces in the academic setting were adopted to show that a president represents the governing body of the school. Maces are used in graduation ceremonies to demonstrate that a school has the legal authority to grant degrees. Auburn's mace was created in fall 2015 from the wood of the beloved Auburn Oaks, representing the Board of Trustees' legal authority and linking to a symbol that is laden with meaning to the Auburn Family. The Auburn mace is approximately 42 inches tall and is carried by the macebearer, one of the faculty leaders from the graduation committee.

GONFALONS

Gonfalons are banners that originated in medieval Italy to identify a state or office. At Auburn commencements, each college and school is represented by a unique gonfalon, carried into the ceremony by a student marshal selected from the graduating class. The university gonfalon is carried by the faculty marshal. Additionally, smaller gonfalons stand on the edge of the floor to designate the seating area for each participating college and school.

AUBURN UNIVERSITY: THE HISTORIC HOME OF THE AUBURN FAMILY

Owing much to the past, Auburn's greater debt remains ever to the future.

Auburn University today is a comprehensive land-, sea- and space-grant institution—among the few that hold that distinction—occupying more than 1,840 acres and helping fulfill the dreams of more than 30,000 students. The university began, though, as the small, more humble East Alabama Male College, which was chartered in 1856 and opened its doors in 1859 as a private liberal arts institution. From 1861 to 1866, the college was closed because of the Civil War. The college had begun an affiliation with the Methodist Church before the war. Due to dire financial straits, the church transferred legal control of the institution to the state in 1872, making it the first land-grant college in the south to be established separate from the state university. It thus became the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Alabama.

A land-grant college or university is an institution that has been designated by its state legislature or Congress to receive the benefits of the Morrill Acts of 1862 and 1890.

The original mission of these institutions, as set forth in the first Morrill Act, was to teach agriculture, military tactics, mechanical arts, as well as classical studies, so that members of the working classes could obtain a liberal, practical education.

Women were admitted in 1892, making Auburn the oldest four-year, coeducational school in the state and the second-oldest in the Southeast. In 1899, the name was again changed to the Alabama Polytechnic Institute. In 1960, the school officially acquired the name it has long been called and one more in keeping with its location, size and mission—Auburn University. The institution has experienced its greatest growth since World War II, and now has more than 230,000 alumni and over 320,000 degrees awarded.

AUBURN UNIVERSITY – THE HISTORIC HOME OF THE AUBURN FAMILY

Chartered in 1856, Auburn University opened in 1859 and became affiliated with the Methodist Church. Throughout the years, the institution has had four official names:

- East Alabama Male College (1856-72)
- Agricultural and Mechanical College (1872-99)
- Alabama Polytechnic Institute (1899-1960)
- Auburn University (1960-present)

Auburn University at Montgomery (AUM) was established as a separately administered branch campus in 1967. The institution has developed rapidly, especially since moving to a 500-acre campus east of Montgomery in 1971. Fall 2019 enrollment at AUM is approximately 5,323.
