

SPRING 2024
AUBURN UNIVERSITY

CONGRATULATIONS

To the Class of 2024,

On behalf of the faculty, administration and staff at Auburn University, I offer you my sincerest congratulations on this remarkable accomplishment. Today, you embody the Auburn Creed as you demonstrate that you believe in the education and the hard work it takes to earn a degree from our esteemed university.

Throughout your tenure at Auburn, you have experienced a profound transformation – intellectually, personally and socially. The Auburn student experience, the Auburn Family and the spirit we have on this campus will always differentiate us from other universities. Cherish the memories you created on this campus. The bonds of friendship have strengthened you and your myriad experiences have shaped your character.

As a land-grant institution, our mission is to put practical knowledge into the hands of those who can use it, create economic opportunities and improve the quality of our lives. I've seen firsthand the impact that an Auburn degree can have, not only on the individual, but the communities they join. That is really powerful. Take what you have experienced and learned at Auburn and use that to benefit and improve the lives of those in your communities.

Through your experiences at Auburn, you've attained valuable knowledge, developed the requisite skillsets and learned the perseverance necessary to thrive in your chosen profession. I am confident that you will continue to exemplify the excellence you've demonstrated as an Auburn student to advance the goals you have for your life and career.

Today, you join more than 327,000 alumni who hold degrees from Auburn. The Auburn Family happily shares in your excitement as you celebrate this special occasion. You've earned the right to dream the biggest dreams. We are cheering for you as you begin this next chapter of your life.

Congratulations, and War Eagle!

Christopher B. Roberts

ALMA MATER AND NATIONAL ANTHEM

ALMA MATER

On the rolling plains of Dixie
'Neath the sun kissed sky
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
Banners high.

To thy name we'll sing thy praise
From hearts that love so true
And pledge to thee our loyalty
The ages through.

We hail thee, Auburn, and we vow
To work for thy just fame,
And hold in memory as we do now
Thy cherished name.

Composed by Bill Wood, 1924
Word Revision, Emma O'Rear Foy, 1960

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

O say can you see,
by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd
at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars,
through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd,
were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare,
the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night
that our flag was still there.
O say does that star-spangled
banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free
and the home of the brave?

Music by John Stafford Smith, 1780
Lyrics by Francis Scott Key, 1814
Adopted as the national anthem of the United States, 1931

SPRING COMMENCEMENT SPEAKERS

KIRSTY COVENTRY

Originally from Harare, Zimbabwe, Kirsty Coventry is an internationally acclaimed swimmer who gained global recognition during the 2004 and 2008 Summer Olympics, winning a total of seven medals. Recruited to Auburn's nationally ranked swimming team by renowned coach David Marsh, Coventry became a pivotal member of the institution's historic National Championship teams in 2002, 2003 and 2004, marking the university's first national title in a women's sport.

Following gold, silver and bronze medals in the 2004 Olympic games, Coventry emerged as the highest individual scorer at the NCAA Championships in 2005, clinching three separate titles in the 200-yard and 400-yard individual medley, and the 200-yard backstroke. Her NCAA achievements include seven national titles and 25 All-American honors. In addition to being honored as the SEC Swimmer of the Year and Female Athlete of the Year for 2004-05, Coventry was named the most outstanding female swimmer of the year by Swimming Magazine and remains the most decorated Auburn Olympian.

After graduating from Auburn in hotel and restaurant management in 2006, the College of Human Sciences alumna continued to represent Zimbabwe as an elite swimmer, competing in the 2007 World Championships and breaking several world records before competing at the 2008 Summer Olympics in Beijing, China, where she added a gold and three silver medals. In addition to the World Championships, Coventry competed in the 2012 Olympics in London and the 2016 Olympics in Rio de Janeiro before retiring that same year, having won the joint-most individual medals in women's swimming in Olympic history and setting five world records. Coventry was inducted into the International Swimming Hall of Fame in 2023.

As a member of the International Olympic Committee (IOC), Coventry is an Executive Board member, Chair of the Dakar 2026 Youth Olympic Games, Chair of the Brisbane 2032 Olympic Games and Chair of the Games Optimization Group (the future of the Olympic Games). Coventry also sits on the IOC Olympic Solidarity and Finance Commissions. She is the Vice President of the International Surfing Federation, and a member of the World Aquatics Athletes' Commission. As Zimbabwe's current Minister of Sport, Arts and Recreation, Coventry works to establish policies and advance programs that enable the developing country's more than 17 million citizens to thrive in sports, arts and recreational pursuits.

C. PHILLIP MCWANE

Phillip McWane, a 1980 graduate in industrial management from the Harbert College of Business, has dedicated more than three decades to steering McWane, Inc. As a global leader in crafting ductile iron products, McWane, Inc. plays a critical role in delivering safe and clean water worldwide. Under his leadership, the multi-billion-dollar enterprise has become synonymous with safety, sustainability and ethically responsible practices. The company's products, renowned for their superior quality and reliable performance, have significantly enhanced community infrastructure across the world.

As chairman, McWane oversees more than 6,000 employees in 25 manufacturing locations worldwide, including the US, Canada, China, India and Australia. As the fourth-generation leader of McWane, Inc., the Birmingham, Alabama native manages the company's extensive product portfolio, which includes ductile pipes, soil pipes, valves, fittings, fire hydrants, fire extinguishers, pressure vessels and poles.

In addition to fostering an organizational philosophy founded on core values of safety and environmental performance, McWane, Inc. is known for its company culture that prioritizes communication, relationships, and work performance—a culture known as “The McWane Way”. The organization's emphasis on environmental stewardship and principled operations has successfully integrated sustainable practices and responsible business conduct, promoting a safe workforce and establishing industry standards in the process.

Beyond his business endeavors, McWane is a noted philanthropist and children's advocate. He has served on the boards of Children's Hospital of Alabama, the Sloss Furnaces Foundation, the McWane Science Center, the PreSchool Partners Advisory Board, and the Birmingham Business Alliance Executive Committee. He actively participates in the Birmingham Rotary Club and is a member of Leadership Alabama.

AUBURN UNIVERSITY BOARD OF TRUSTEES COMMENCEMENT SPEAKERS

CLARK SAHLIE

Clark Sahlie is a small business owner in Montgomery. He was appointed to the Board of Trustees by Governor Robert Bentley and confirmed by the Alabama Senate on April 10, 2012 to represent District 2. His first term expired on April 9, 2019, and he was reappointed to a second term by Governor Kay Ivey and confirmed by the Alabama Senate on February 13, 2020. His second term will expire on February 12, 2027.

Sahlie earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from Auburn University in 1988. He is married to Cindy Ayers Sahlie, a 1985 Auburn graduate, and has two sons, Will, a 2019 Auburn graduate, and Lee, a spring 2024 graduate.

JAMES W. RANE

James W. Rane is chairman, president and CEO of Great Southern Wood Preserving, Inc., the leading producer of pressure treated lumber in the United States. Rane has been a member of the Auburn University Board of Trustees since 1999. Following the change in the Alabama Constitution that shortened board terms from twelve to seven years, Rane was confirmed by the Alabama Senate for his first seven-year term on March 22, 2012. His first seven-year term expired on March 21, 2021, and he was reappointed to a second seven-year term on March 22, 2023. His second term will expire on March 21, 2030.

Rane, from southeast Alabama, graduated from Marion Military Institute before earning his bachelor of science in business administration at Auburn University. He received a doctor of jurisprudence from the Cumberland School of Law of Samford University. He has also successfully completed the Owner/President Management Program, the Sustainable Marketing Leadership Program, and the Families in Business: From Generation to Generation Program at the Harvard Business School.

Rane is actively involved in many civic and educational organizations. Additionally, he is president of the Jimmy Rane Foundation and actively works to raise money to fund college scholarships for deserving students. Rane resides in Abbeville, AL.

QUENTIN RIGGINS

Quentin Riggins is senior vice president of Governmental and Corporate Affairs for Alabama Power. His first term on the Auburn University Board of Trustees began upon his confirmation by the Alabama Senate on February 9, 2017 and will expire on February 8, 2024.

Riggins' past experience includes 24 years in Alabama government, including serving as a member of Gov. Bob Riley's cabinet as director of legislative affairs. He also served as a legislative affairs analyst for former Speaker of the House of Representatives Seth Hammett.

As senior vice president of the Business Council of Alabama, Riggins led governmental affairs efforts for the organization's 5,000 members. After six successful years, Riggins began his own governmental affairs firm.

Riggins earned a bachelor's degree at Auburn in marketing and distributive education. He also was a second team All-American and All-Southeastern Conference linebacker. He has served on the Auburn Athletics Chief Operating Officer Advisory Committee.

His additional community and civic involvement includes serving on the boards of Grandview Medical Center, Voices for Alabama's Children, the Energy Institute of Alabama and the Business Council of Alabama's ProgressPAC. He has previously served on the boards of Leadership Alabama and the Baptist Foundation.

He and his wife, Kimi, have one daughter and reside in Trussville, AL.

JAMES SANFORD

James (Jimmy) Hopson Sanford is the former chairman of the Birmingham Branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, the National Cotton Council of America in Memphis, and a former board director of Alabama Power Company. As a student, Sanford was Commander of Sigma Nu Fraternity and graduated from Auburn University in 1968 with a bachelor's degree in business administration and in 1971 with a master of science in economics with his thesis accepted by the Ralph Brown Draughon Library. In 2021, the Edward Via College of Osteopathic Medicine (VCOM) awarded him the Doctor of Humanities and Letters.

Jimmy serves the following organizations: Chairperson of HOME Place Farms, Choice Cotton, Alabama Cotton Commission, EDPA Foundation, and Auburn Technology and Research Foundation; President of Autauga Quality Cotton Association and Legends Properties; Vice Chairperson of Judson College and the Judson Foundation; and, Director of VCOM. Also as a board director, he serves on a number of not for profit civic and industry organizations.

He was appointed to the Board of Trustees by Governor Robert Bentley and confirmed by the Alabama Senate on March 15, 2012, to represent the 4th District. His first term expired on March 14, 2019, and he was reappointed to a second term by Governor Kay Ivey and confirmed by the Alabama Senate on February 3, 2021. His second term will expire on February 2, 2028.

He is married to Dorothy (Dot) Hardage Sanford. They have three Auburn graduated children and (spouses): Susan Jones, Catherine Porter (Walt Porter), Will Sanford (Anne Womack) and three grandchildren (Annabeth Jones (AU Class of 2026), Mack and Hardy Sanford.

PROVOST VINI NATHAN

Dr. Vini Nathan began serving as Auburn University's provost and senior vice president for academic affairs in May 2023 after serving for a year as interim provost. Previously, Nathan was the dean and McWhorter Chair of the College of Architecture, Design and Construction from 2011-2022. She is also a tenured professor of Architecture and Interior Architecture and is a Senior Fellow of the Design Futures Council.

As provost, Nathan is the university's chief academic officer and oversees the university's academic and outreach missions. Nathan works with faculty, staff, students, alumni, and other stakeholders to ensure the university maintains the highest possible outreach and teaching and learning programs. In carrying out these responsibilities, she works directly with the deans of the 12 colleges, the university's shared governance groups, university administrators, student leaders, and other Provost's Office team members. In addition, Nathan oversees faculty matters, academic issues and policies, accreditation, strategic planning, educational services and resources, faculty development, and outreach and is responsible for the university's tenure and promotion process.

Prior to Auburn, Nathan held the position of dean and professor in the School of Architecture at Thomas Jefferson University. As an architect working for Walker Group/CNI in New York, Nathan collaborated with Cesar Pelli Associates to design the Kuala Lumpur City Center (Petronas Towers) in Malaysia. Nathan holds a doctor of philosophy in Architecture from the University of Michigan, a master's degree in Interior Design from Virginia Tech, and a bachelor's degree in Architecture from Anna University.

WAR EAGLE!

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic regalia worn during graduation is based on attire from the 12th and 13th centuries when universities were being established. Academic dress and accoutrements have been used in higher education in the United States since colonial times. In 1895, an intercollegiate commission adopted a standardized code for the use of academic gowns, hoods, and caps, which included regulation of style and materials. Colors were prescribed to represent different fields of learning. Since then, the majority of colleges and universities in the United States, including Auburn, have upheld the code.

GOWNS

Except for a few universities, academic gowns are all black. The bachelor's gown is the simplest of the three types. The master's gown is similar but has sleeves with an extra long extension. Representing the highest degree, the doctoral gown is fuller throughout and has pleated bell-shaped sleeves. It is trimmed with a velvet band that circles the neck and descends the front, and it has velvet bars on the sleeves.

ACADEMIC HOODS

Academic hoods have endured as the sign of a scholar, and increased symbolism through color and material. Master's hoods are edged in velvet in the color of the candidate's major field. The hood's satin lining shows Auburn's official colors. A doctoral hood is longer and larger than the master's. A doctor of philosophy's hood has dark blue velvet-bound edges and the doctor of audiology has green.

The orange and blue satin lining shows that the degree was conferred at Auburn University. The faculty who march in the academic processional show a range of colors marking their diverse fields, degrees, and institutions.

The traditional rule for academic hoods is that a candidate for a degree should not wear the hood until the degree is conferred. However, at Auburn, master's degrees are conferred en masse, therefore degree candidates wear hoods throughout the ceremony. Doctoral degree recipients are hooded by their major professor during the ceremony. These candidates do not wear the hood during the academic processional, but receive their hood when the degree is conferred.

CAPS AND TASSELS

A black mortar board is the typical headwear worn, with some faculty wearing black tams. All caps have tassels. Students earning a bachelor's degree have tassel colors representing their fields. They begin the ceremony with the tassels on the right front side; after all degrees are conferred, they are instructed to move the tassels to the left side. Faculty and candidates for master's and doctoral degrees already wear their gold tassels on the left side.

STOLES, CORDS, AND MEDALS

In addition to the orange stoles worn by student marshals, some graduates wear regalia signifying academic achievements or membership in organizations, primarily academic honor societies. Students graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, or cum laude wear yellow cords. The Honors College recognizes its graduates with silver medals. Students inducted into Phi Kappa Phi, an honor society incorporating all fields of study, may wear cords of interwoven gold and blue. Some schools and colleges have honor societies unique to their discipline, and students selected for membership wear stoles, cords or medallions representing them. Like hoods, each color and pattern is unique to the honor.

MACE

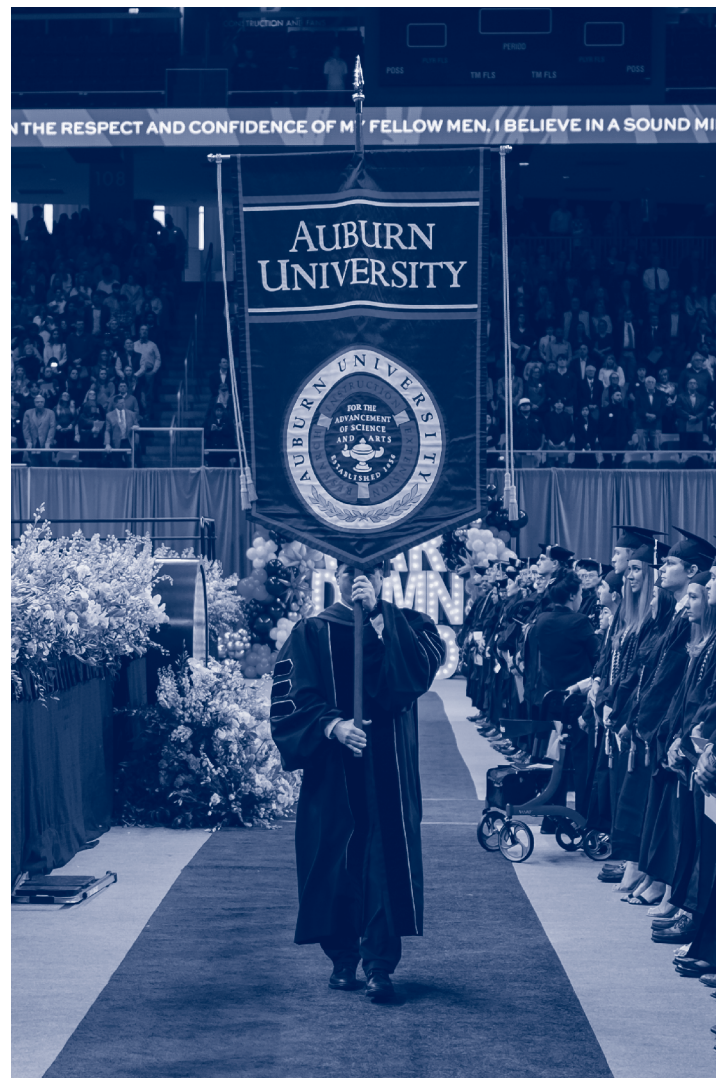

In ancient Rome, what would later be called a mace was carried at the head of processing civil authorities. By the Middle Ages, the Catholic Church similarly used a mace, which also became associated with the civil authority of monarchies. Today, the United Kingdom's House of Commons still presents a mace to mark the opening of daily sessions being open and legal. The U.S. House of Representatives adopted this practice in 1789, establishing the tradition of the Sergeant at Arms carrying the mace into the chamber to be placed near the Speaker of the House.

As an established symbol of authority, maces in the academic setting were adopted to show that a president represents the governing body of the school. Maces are used in graduation ceremonies to demonstrate that a school has the legal authority to grant degrees. Auburn's mace was created in fall 2015 from the wood of the beloved Auburn Oaks, representing the Board of Trustees' legal authority and linking to a symbol that is laden with meaning to the Auburn Family. The Auburn mace is approximately 42 inches tall and is carried by the macebearer, one of the faculty leaders from the graduation committee.

GONFALONS

Gonfalons are banners that originated in medieval Italy to identify a state or office. At Auburn commencements, each college and school is represented by a unique gonfalon, carried into the ceremony by a student marshal selected from the graduating class. The university gonfalon is carried by the faculty marshal. Additionally, smaller gonfalons stand on the edge of the floor to designate the seating area for each participating college and school.

HISTORIC HOME OF THE AUBURN FAMILY

Chartered in 1856, Auburn University opened in 1859 and became affiliated with the Methodist Church. Throughout the years, the institution has held four official names:

East Alabama Male College (1856-72)
 Agricultural and Mechanical College (1872-99)
 Alabama Polytechnic Institute (1899-1960)
 Auburn University (1960-present)

Auburn University at Montgomery (AUM) was established as a separately administered branch campus in 1967. The institution has developed rapidly, especially since moving to a 500-acre campus east of Montgomery in 1971. Fall 2019 enrollment at AUM was approximately 5,323.

SUMMER 2024
AUBURN UNIVERSITY

To the Class of 2024,

On behalf of the faculty, administration and staff at Auburn University, I offer you my sincerest congratulations on this remarkable accomplishment. Today, you embody the Auburn Creed as you demonstrate that you believe in the education and the hard work it takes to earn a degree from our esteemed university.

Throughout your tenure at Auburn, you have experienced a profound transformation – intellectually, personally and socially.

The Auburn student experience, the Auburn Family and the spirit we have on this campus will always differentiate us from other universities. Cherish the memories you created on this campus. The bonds of friendship have strengthened you and your myriad experiences have shaped your character.

As a land-grant institution, our mission is to put practical knowledge into the hands of those who can use it, create economic opportunities and improve the quality of our lives. I've seen firsthand the impact that an Auburn degree can have, not only on the individual, but the communities they join. That is really powerful. Take what you have experienced and learned at Auburn and use that to benefit and improve the lives of those in your communities.

Through your experiences at Auburn, you've attained valuable knowledge, developed the requisite skillsets and learned the perseverance necessary to thrive in your chosen profession. I am confident that you will continue to exemplify the excellence you've demonstrated as an Auburn student to advance the goals you have for your life and career.

Today, you join more than 327,000 alumni who hold degrees from Auburn. The Auburn Family happily shares in your excitement as you celebrate this special occasion. You've earned the right to dream the biggest dreams. We are cheering for you as you begin this next chapter of your life.

Congratulations, and War Eagle!

ALMA MATER AND NATIONAL ANTHEM

ALMA MATER

On the rolling plains of Dixie
'Neath the sun kissed sky
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
Banners high.

To thy name we'll sing thy praise
From hearts that love so true
And pledge to thee our loyalty
The ages through.

We hail thee, Auburn, and we vow
To work for thy just fame,
And hold in memory as we do now
Thy cherished name.

Composed by Bill Wood, 1924
Word Revision, Emma O'Rear Foy, 1960

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

O say can you see,
by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd
at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars,
through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd,
were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare,
the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night
that our flag was still there.
O say does that star-spangled
banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free
and the home of the brave?

Music by John Stafford Smith, 1780
Lyrics by Francis Scott Key, 1814
Adopted as the national anthem of the United States, 1931

AUBURN UNIVERSITY BOARD OF TRUSTEES COMMENCEMENT SPEAKERS

WALT WOLTOSZ

Walt Woltosz holds a bachelor's and master's from Auburn University in Aerospace Engineering, 1969 and 1977, and a master's in administrative sciences from the University of Alabama in Huntsville. He worked as an electronics engineer with the Federal Aviation Administration and later with Northrop Services developing simulation/optimization computer programming for the space shuttle ascent trajectory. In 1981, he established Words+, Inc, a company that designs, manufactures, and sells computer-based communication systems. His work in this area radically transformed the way in which people with disabilities communicate. In 1986, Woltosz and his team developed the first system with adaptive word prediction and developed the comprehensive ACES (Augmentative Communication Evaluation System), the largest software development project undertaken in the field.

Woltosz was confirmed for a seven-year term by the Alabama Senate on March 21, 2024. He is married to Ginger Woltosz, and they have five children, Stephen, Tanya, Rachel, Daniel, and Jennifer.

CLARK SAHLIE

Clark Sahlie is a retired business owner from Montgomery. He was appointed to the Board of Trustees by Governor Robert Bentley and confirmed by the Alabama Senate on April 10, 2012 to represent the 2nd District. His first term expired on April 9, 2019, and he was reappointed to a second term by Governor Kay Ivey and confirmed by the Alabama Senate on February 13, 2020. His second term will expire on February 12, 2027.

Sahlie served as a member of several boards in the Montgomery area including The Montgomery Academy, The Alabama Forestry Association, The Montgomery YMCA Foundation, and the Montgomery Advisory Board of Oakworth Capital Bank.

Sahlie earned a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Auburn University in 1988. He is married to Cindy Ayers Sahlie, a 1985 Auburn alumna, and they have two sons, Will, a 2019 Auburn graduate, and Lee, a 2023 and 2024 Auburn graduate.

PROVOST VINI NATHAN

Dr. Vini Nathan began serving as Auburn University's provost and senior vice president for academic affairs in May 2023 after serving for a year as interim provost. Previously, Nathan was the dean and McWhorter Chair of the College of Architecture, Design and Construction from 2011-2022. She is also a tenured professor of Architecture and Interior Architecture and is a Senior Fellow of the Design Futures Council.

As provost, Nathan is the university's chief academic officer and oversees the university's academic and outreach missions. Nathan works with faculty, staff, students, alumni, and other stakeholders to ensure the university maintains the highest possible outreach and teaching and learning programs. In carrying out these responsibilities, she works directly with the deans of the 12 colleges, the university's shared governance groups, university administrators, student leaders, and other Provost's Office team members. In addition, Nathan oversees faculty matters, academic issues and policies, accreditation, strategic planning, educational services and resources, faculty development, and outreach and is responsible for the university's tenure and promotion process.

Prior to Auburn, Nathan held the position of dean and professor in the School of Architecture at Thomas Jefferson University. As an architect working for Walker Group/CNI in New York, Nathan collaborated with Cesar Pelli Associates to design the Kuala Lumpur City Center (Petronas Towers) in Malaysia. Nathan holds a doctor of philosophy in Architecture from the University of Michigan, a master's degree in Interior Design from Virginia Tech, and a bachelor's degree in Architecture from Anna University.

AUBURN UNIVERSITY COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

BEAU BYRD '89

A 1989 accounting graduate from the Harbert College of Business, Beau Byrd is a distinguished partner at the Bradley Law Firm in Birmingham, Alabama. With a specialization in commercial real estate and lending transactions, Byrd has been a pillar of the city's legal community for over three decades. His clientele spans Alabama, Georgia, and the entire southern United States and includes lenders, financial institutions, borrowers, developers, owners, and investors. His expertise covers commercial real estate and lending transactions, including multi-family, industrial, retail, senior housing, office spaces, new market tax credits, and historic tax credits.

As a respected fellow of the American College of Real Estate Lawyers and the American College of Mortgage Attorneys, Byrd has held significant leadership roles, including serving as the past president of the Alabama Chapter of the National Association for Industrial and Office Parks and twice chairing the Real Property, Probate, and Estate Section of the Alabama State Bar. His professional excellence is recognized in Chambers USA (Band 1), The Best Lawyers in America®, and Mid-South Super Lawyers. He also holds an esteemed AV rating from Martindale-Hubbell®. In the academic realm, Byrd has served as an adjunct professor at Samford University's Cumberland School of Law and the University of Alabama School of Law.

Byrd's dedication to Auburn is evident through his ongoing contributions and leadership as a distinguished alumnus. He currently serves on the Auburn University Foundation's Board of Directors and is a lifelong member of the Auburn Alumni Association. His decade of service on the Alumni Association's Board included a term as president. In addition to his involvement in numerous Auburn societies, such as the Foy Society, the Circle of Excellence Society, the 1856 Society, the George Petrie Society, and the Shug Jordan Society, Byrd is an active member of the Professional Advisory Board of the Master of Real Estate Development program in the Harbert College of Business, where he previously served as its chair. He also previously served as president of the Greater Birmingham Auburn Club. Byrd and his wife Kathy, sons Walker and Carter, and daughter-in-law Sarah (who are all also proud Auburn Alumni) continue to champion Auburn students by supporting various university programs and scholarships.

AUBURN UNIVERSITY COMMENCEMENT SINGERS

EMILY THOMSON

A native of Hoover, Alabama, Emily Thomson is graduating from Auburn in summer 2024 with a bachelor's degree in music education – vocal-choral. During her time at Auburn, Thomson actively participated in various vocal ensembles, campus events, and student organizations. She held the prestigious position of president for Auburn's chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota, an international music fraternity. Thomson also showcased her leadership skills as the president and section leader of the AU Women's Chorus. In addition, she served as the vice president of MeLAUdic, a student-led women's a cappella group, and represented Auburn's Department of Music as a student ambassador. Following graduation, she plans to share her passion for music and theatre with middle school students as a teacher in Locust Grove, Georgia.

MATTIE ELISE HINES

Mattie Hines is graduating from Auburn in summer 2024 with a bachelor's degree in commercial music performance. Her journey at Auburn was enriched by her active participation in various music ensembles such as Sonic Nation, The Sound Den, Gospel Choir, Chamber Choir, and Women's Chorus. In addition to her musical pursuits, Hines also held the prestigious position of Student Ambassador for the Department of Music. As she prepares for her professional journey in the music industry, she is equally excited about earning the distinguished status of an Auburn University alumna.

CANDIDATES FOR GRADUATION GRADUATE SCHOOL

Doctor of Philosophy

Ahmet Faruk Akhan.....Izmir, Turkey
"Dynamics of the Impact for Mechanical and Animal Systems," directed by Dan Marghitu, Department of Mechanical Engineering.

Sathish Chandra Akula.....Hyderabad, India
"Leveraging AI for Enhanced Hydrology Forecasting," directed by Cheryl Seals, Department of Computer Science and Software Engineering and Sanjiv Kumar, College of Forestry, Wildlife and Environment.

Veronica Nicole Alston.....Hackensack, New Jersey
"Genetic Biotechnology to Improve Reproduction of North American Catfish for Aquaculture, Genetic Enhancement and Genetic Conservation," directed by Rex Dunham, School of Fisheries, Aquaculture, and Aquatic Sciences.

Ashley Nicole Anderson.....Birmingham
"Exploring Residential Staff Responses to Resident Behavior," directed by JOHN RAPP, Department of Psychological Sciences.

Md Shahriar Aziz.....Rajshahi, Bangladesh
"Predictive Sensor Analytics for Power Side-Channel Monitoring of Security Applications in Fused Deposition Modeling," directed by Gregory Purdy, Department of Industrial and Systems Engineering.

Victoria Lee Ballard.....Redmond, Washington
"Manufacturing Workplace Support Structures and Technology: Effects on Mental Workload, Performance, Self-Efficacy, and Social Anxiety on both Neurotypical and ADHD Workers," directed by Richard Sesek, Department of Industrial and Systems Engineering.

Naman Bansal.....Narwana, India
"SOFSAT," directed by Shubhra Karmaker, Department of Computer Science and Software Engineering.

Yida Bao.....Shanghai, China
"Hopfield Neural Network Analysis," directed by Xiaoying Han, Department of Mathematics and Statistics.

Astra Y Barkley.....Enterprise
"Black Women and Mental Health: Establishing Effective and Culturally Supportive Therapeutic Relationships," directed by Margie Taylor, Department of Special Education, Rehabilitation, and Counseling.

Ritankar Bhattacharya.....Kolkata, India
"Application of In-Silico Protein Engineering and Optimization Methods to Design Target-Specific Therapeutic Binders," directed by Robert Pantazes, Department of Chemical Engineering.

Emily Kilgo Bourne.....Southside
"Beliefs and Intentions of U.S. Registered Dietitian/Registered Dietitian Nutritionists Towards Providing Breastfeeding Support to Prenatal/Postpartum Mothers.," directed by Ramesh Jeganathan and Donna Burnett, Department of Nutrition, Dietetics, and Hospitality Management.

Margryette I Boyd.....Las Vegas, Nevada
"Navigating Professional Lynching: The Role of Teacher Evaluations as Weapons for Black Women Educators in an Urban Red Southeast State-A Critical Autoethnographic Study," directed by Andrew Pendola and Elena Aydarova, Department of Educational Foundations, Leadership, and Technology.

Denise Clare Bozek.....Clifton, Virginia
"The Lived Experiences with Accessibility of Undergraduate Students with Disabilities," directed by Chippewa Thomas, Department of Special Education, Rehabilitation, and Counseling.

Brandon Michael Buelow.....Marysville, Michigan
"To War or Not to War: Sub-conventional Warfare's Effects on the Likelihood of Conventional War," directed by Peter White, Department of Political Science.

Margaret Allison Caruso.....Toms River, New Jersey
"Resilience Across Subgroups of Posttraumatic Stress Disorder and Alcohol Misuse in the Military: A Latent Profile Analysis," directed by Christopher Correia, Department of Psychological Sciences.

Wonil Choi.....Daegu, South Korea
"Unveiling the Consequences of Hypoxia and Thermal Stress in Avian Embryos: The Crucial Role of Pore Density," directed by Haruka Wada, Department of Biological Sciences.

LaJae Coleman-KirumbaBaton Rouge, Louisiana
"Breaking the Chains of White Supremacy: Examining the Psychological Effects of Skin-Tone Discrimination among African Americans in the United States," directed by Marilyn Cornish, Department of Special Education, Rehabilitation, and Counseling.

Brian Jarod Cornish.....Warner Robins, Georgia
"Three Chapters in Applied Economics," directed by Ruiqing Maio, Department of Agricultural Economics and Rural Sociology.

Carly Patricia Cummings.....Nyack, New York
"Developing and Studying the Effects of Equitable Educational Resources to Increase Environmental Awareness, Science Proficiency, and Sustainability in Alabama's Schools and Communities?," directed by Maria Peresin, College of Forestry, Wildlife and Environment.

Brandi DaileyAuburn
"An Exploration of Elementary Preservice Teachers' Science Teaching Self-Efficacy Beliefs and Their Ability to Notice Students' Scientific Thinking," directed by Lucretia Tripp, Department of Curriculum and Teaching.

Amit Das.....Kolkata, India
"Advancing Online Hate Speech Detection: Utilizing External Features and Large Language Models," directed by Cheryl Seals and Gerry Dozier, Department of Computer Science and Software Engineering.

Tom L Devall.....Ypsilanti, Michigan
"Experiential Learning vs Traditional Classroom Lecture for Lean Manufacturing Education," directed by Maria Witte, Department of Educational Foundations, Leadership, and Technology.

Rebecca Ann Dunterman.....Chicago Ridge, Illinois
"Lifestyle and Personality Factors that Contribute to Cognitive Reserve across the Lifespan," directed by Susan Earp, Department of Psychological Sciences.

The list of graduates presented in the program is unofficial and includes only those with completed diploma applications at the time of publication. Names and thesis/dissertation titles appear as submitted by the graduate.

Jerin Robins Ebanesar.....Kannur, India "Spray evaporation on enhanced tube bundles with Low-GWP refrigerant-miscible oil mixtures," directed by Lorenzo Cremaschi, Department of Mechanical Engineering.	Hannah Rose Houde.....Jackson, New Jersey "Understanding the Relationship between Classification and Propulsion Mechanics in Collegiate Wheelchair Basketball Athletes.," directed by Wendi Weimar, School of Kinesiology.
Sanaz Einollahi.....Arnold, Maryland "Consumers' Perceptions of AI-Designed Apparel: Functional-Expressive-Aesthetics Model of Consumer Needs," directed by Wi-Suk Kwon, Department of Consumer and Design Sciences.	Tianhan Huang.....Quanzhou, China "Mechanism of Prokaryotic Ribosome Translation," directed by Alexey Petrov, Department of Biological Sciences.
Sara Elizabeth Ellison.....Decatur, Georgia "The Role of Self-Control in Experiences, Attitudes, and Behaviors Related to Nonsuicidal Self-Injury: A Grounded Theory Analysis," directed by Jill Meyer, Department of Special Education, Rehabilitation, and Counseling.	Keith Michael Huffman.....Gordo "Examining the Effects of Nostalgia on Authenticity, Empathy, and Meaning in Life Among Counseling Students," directed by Jinhee Park, Department of Special Education, Rehabilitation, and Counseling.
Matthew James Flynn.....Homer, Louisiana "The Impacts of Retail Options Trading and REIT Director Backgrounds," directed by Jimmy Hilliard and Jitka Hilliard, Department of Finance.	Toan Phuoc Huynh.....Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam "Global-in-time Domain Decomposition Methods for Flow and Transport Problems in Fractured Porous Media," directed by Phuong Hoang and Yanzhao Cao, Department of Mathematics and Statistics.
Huachen Gan.....Shanghai, China "Investigation of the Cellular Response to Environmental Stresses," directed by Paul Cobine, Department of Biological Sciences.	Manuel IndacoSan Giuliano Milanese, Italy "Anomaly Resilience, Detection, and Reaction in Astrodynamics Problems," directed by Davide Guzzetti, Department of Aerospace Engineering.
Ananya Ghosh.....Kolkata, India "Engineering Functional Materials from Cellulose Nanocrystals by Exploring Their Structure and Property Relationship," directed by Zhihua Jiang, Department of Chemical Engineering.	Rezoanul Islam.....Brahmanbaria, Bangladesh "Solvent Dependent Spectroscopic and Electrochemical Studies of Nickel (II) Bisdithiocarbamate for Energy Storage," directed by Byron Farnum, Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry.

WAR EAGLE!

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic regalia worn during graduation is based on attire from the 12th and 13th centuries when universities were being established. Academic dress and accoutrements have been used in higher education in the United States since colonial times. In 1895, an intercollegiate commission adopted a standardized code for the use of academic gowns, hoods, and caps, which included regulation of style and materials. Colors were prescribed to represent different fields of learning. Since then, the majority of colleges and universities in the United States, including Auburn, have upheld the code.

GOWNS

Except for a few universities, academic gowns are all black. The bachelor's gown is the simplest of the three types. The master's gown is similar but has sleeves with an extra long extension. Representing the highest degree, the doctoral gown is fuller throughout and has pleated bell-shaped sleeves. It is trimmed with a velvet band that circles the neck and descends the front, and it has velvet bars on the sleeves.

ACADEMIC HOODS

Academic hoods have endured as the sign of a scholar, and increased symbolism through color and material. Master's hoods are edged in velvet in the color of the candidate's major field. The hood's satin lining shows Auburn's official colors. A doctoral hood is longer and larger than the master's. A doctor of philosophy's hood has dark blue velvet-bound edges and the doctor of audiology has green.

The orange and blue satin lining shows that the degree was conferred at Auburn University. The faculty who march in the academic processional show a range of colors marking their diverse fields, degrees, and institutions.

The traditional rule for academic hoods is that a candidate for a degree should not wear the hood until the degree is conferred. However, at Auburn, master's degrees are conferred en masse, therefore degree candidates wear hoods throughout the ceremony. Doctoral degree recipients are hooded by their major professor during the ceremony. These candidates do not wear the hood during the academic processional, but receive their hood when the degree is conferred.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

CAPS AND TASSELS

A black mortar board is the typical headwear worn, with some faculty wearing black tams. All caps have tassels. Students earning a bachelor's degree have tassel colors representing their fields. They begin the ceremony with the tassels on the right front side; after all degrees are conferred, they are instructed to move the tassels to the left side. Faculty and candidates for master's and doctoral degrees already wear their gold tassels on the left side.

STOLES, CORDS, AND MEDALS

In addition to the orange stoles worn by student marshals, some graduates wear regalia signifying academic achievements or membership in organizations, primarily academic honor societies. Students graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, or cum laude wear yellow cords. The Honors College recognizes its graduates with silver medals. Students inducted into Phi Kappa Phi, an honor society incorporating all fields of study, may wear cords of interwoven gold and blue. Some schools and colleges have honor societies unique to their discipline, and students selected for membership wear stoles, cords or medallions representing them. Like hoods, each color and pattern is unique to the honor.

MACE

In ancient Rome, what would later be called a mace was carried at the head of processing civil authorities. By the Middle Ages, the Catholic Church similarly used a mace, which also became associated with the civil authority of monarchies. Today, the United Kingdom's House of Commons still presents a mace to mark the opening of daily sessions being open and legal. The U.S. House of Representatives adopted this practice in 1789, establishing the tradition of the Sergeant at Arms carrying the mace into the chamber to be placed near the Speaker of the House.

As an established symbol of authority, maces in the academic setting were adopted to show that a president represents the governing body of the school. Maces are used in graduation ceremonies to demonstrate that a school has the legal authority to grant degrees. Auburn's mace was created in fall 2015 from the wood of the beloved Auburn Oaks, representing the Board of Trustees' legal authority and linking to a symbol that is laden with meaning to the Auburn Family. The Auburn mace is approximately 42 inches tall and is carried by the macebearer, one of the faculty leaders from the graduation committee.

GONFALONS

Gonfalons are banners that originated in medieval Italy to identify a state or office. At Auburn commencements, each college and school is represented by a unique gonfalon, carried into the ceremony by a student marshal selected from the graduating class. The university gonfalon is carried by the faculty marshal. Additionally, smaller gonfalons stand on the edge of the floor to designate the seating area for each participating college and school.

HISTORIC HOME OF THE AUBURN FAMILY

Chartered in 1856, Auburn University opened in 1859 and became affiliated with the Methodist Church. Throughout the years, the institution has held four official names:

- East Alabama Male College (1856-72)
- Agricultural and Mechanical College (1872-99)
- Alabama Polytechnic Institute (1899-1960)
- Auburn University (1960-present)

Auburn University at Montgomery (AUM) was established as a separately administered branch campus in 1967. The institution has developed rapidly, especially since moving to a 500-acre campus east of Montgomery in 1971. Fall 2019 enrollment at AUM was approximately 5,323.

GRADUATION EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

NEVILLE ARENA

In case of an evacuation, please exit the building through the nearest marked exit in an orderly and calm fashion. Please be considerate of any persons with disabilities and follow any instructions given by public safety officials.

The ceremony will continue after an "ALL CLEAR" order has been given by public safety officials. Additional announcements will be given as more information is received.

SEVERE WEATHER

In the event of severe weather, guests located on the main concourse level please remain seated. For those located on the mezzanine level, exit your seats in an orderly and calm fashion, and make your way down to the lower-level concourse area. Graduates, please remain seated. Follow the directions given by public safety officials. Do not leave the arena until the announcement is made that it is safe to do so. Be considerate of any children and persons with disabilities. The ceremony will continue after an "ALL CLEAR" order has been given by public safety officials. Additional announcements will be given as more information is received.

AUBURN UNIVERSITY

To the Class of 2024,

On behalf of the faculty, administration and staff at Auburn University, I offer you my sincerest congratulations on this remarkable accomplishment. Today, you embody the Auburn Creed as you demonstrate that you believe in the education and the hard work it takes to earn a degree from our esteemed university.

Throughout your tenure at Auburn, you have experienced a profound transformation – intellectually, personally and socially.

The Auburn student experience, the Auburn Family and the spirit we have on this campus will always differentiate us from other universities. Cherish the memories you created on this campus. The bonds of friendship have strengthened you and your myriad experiences have shaped your character.

As a land-grant institution, our mission is to put practical knowledge into the hands of those who can use it, create economic opportunities and improve the quality of our lives. I've seen firsthand the impact that an Auburn degree can have, not only on the individual, but the communities they join. That is really powerful. Take what you have experienced and learned at Auburn and use that to benefit and improve the lives of those in your communities.

Through your experiences at Auburn, you've attained valuable knowledge, developed the requisite skillsets and learned the perseverance necessary to thrive in your chosen profession. I am confident that you will continue to exemplify the excellence you've demonstrated as an Auburn student to advance the goals you have for your life and career.

Since Auburn began in 1856, we have awarded a total of 329,342 degrees. The Auburn Family happily shares in your excitement as you celebrate this special occasion. You've earned the right to dream the biggest dreams. We are cheering for you as you begin this next chapter of your life.

Congratulations, and War Eagle!

ALMA MATER AND NATIONAL ANTHEM

ALMA MATER

On the rolling plains of Dixie
'Neath the sun kissed sky
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
Banners high.

To thy name we'll sing thy praise
From hearts that love so true
And pledge to thee our loyalty
The ages through.

We hail thee, Auburn, and we vow
To work for thy just fame,
And hold in memory as we do now
Thy cherished name.

Composed by Bill Wood, 1924
Word Revision, Emma O'Rear Foy, 1960

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

O say can you see,
by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd
at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars,
through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd,
were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare,
the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night
that our flag was still there.
O say does that star-spangled
banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free
and the home of the brave?

Music by John Stafford Smith, 1780
Lyrics by Francis Scott Key, 1814
Adopted as the national anthem of the United States, 1931

AUBURN UNIVERSITY BOARD OF TRUSTEES COMMENCEMENT SPEAKERS

ELIZABETH HUNTLEY

Elizabeth Huntley, a civil litigation attorney with Lightfoot, Franklin & White in Birmingham, was appointed to the Auburn University Board of Trustees by Gov. Robert Bentley and confirmed by the Senate on April 10, 2012, to represent the 6th District. She was re-confirmed by the Alabama Senate on March 21, 2024. Her second term will expire on March 20, 2031.

Huntley earned a bachelor's degree in political science from Auburn University in 1993, and a law degree from the University of Alabama in 1997. Huntley has served as a member of various business and civic organizations and boards. She is a committed child advocate, author, and Co-founder of the Hope Institute which helps schools build a culture of character.

She and her husband Tony Huntley '85 reside in Clanton, Alabama. They have two daughters, Ada Ruth (Auburn University, '21) and Sarah Beth and one son, AJ.

MICHAEL A. DEMAIORIBUS

Michael DeMaioribus retired as executive vice president from Dynetics, Inc., a high-technology company headquartered in Huntsville, Alabama. He now consults through DeMaioribus Technologies LLC. He was appointed to the Board of Trustees by Governor Robert Bentley and confirmed by the Alabama Senate on February 14, 2013, to represent the 8th District. His first term expired on February 13, 2020, and he was reappointed to a second term by Governor Kay Ivey and confirmed by the Alabama Senate on February 3, 2021. His second term will expire on February 2, 2028.

DeMaioribus earned his bachelor's degree (1976) and a master's degree (1977) in electrical engineering from Auburn University.

He is married to the former Leta Hornbuckle of Huntsville. They have four married children, all of whom attended Auburn University, and nine grandchildren.

PROVOST VINI NATHAN

Dr. Vini Nathan began serving as Auburn University's provost and senior vice president for academic affairs in May 2023 after serving for a year as interim provost. Previously, Nathan was the dean and McWhorter Chair of the College of Architecture, Design and Construction from 2011-2022. She is also a tenured professor of Architecture and Interior Architecture and is a Senior Fellow of the Design Futures Council.

As provost, Nathan is the university's chief academic officer and oversees the university's academic and outreach missions. Nathan works with faculty, staff, students, alumni, and other stakeholders to ensure the university maintains the highest possible outreach and teaching and learning programs. In carrying out these responsibilities, she works directly with the deans of the 12 colleges, the university's shared governance groups, university administrators, student leaders, and other Provost's Office team members. In addition, Nathan oversees faculty matters, academic issues and policies, accreditation, strategic planning, educational services and resources, faculty development, and outreach and is responsible for the university's tenure and promotion process.

Prior to Auburn, Nathan held the position of dean and professor in the School of Architecture at Thomas Jefferson University. As an architect working for Walker Group/CNI in New York, Nathan collaborated with Cesar Pelli Associates to design the Kuala Lumpur City Center (Petronas Towers) in Malaysia. Nathan holds a doctor of philosophy in Architecture from the University of Michigan, a master's degree in Interior Design from Virginia Tech, and a bachelor's degree in Architecture from Anna University.

GERALD L. POUNCEY, JR.

Gerald L. Pouncey, Jr. is the Chairman of Morris, Manning & Martin, LLP, where he also serves as a Senior Partner and oversees the Environmental and Infrastructure Practices. A 1982 chemical engineering graduate, Pouncey primarily focuses on acquiring, disposing, and redeveloping properties with significant environmental impacts, including state and federal superfund sites. He is also involved in mergers, investments, economic incentives, and the development of green energy technologies. Pouncey is a national lecturer on these topics and has led efforts in the permitting, financing, acquisition, redevelopment, and regulatory closure of numerous industrial properties across the United States.

Pouncey has been pivotal in revitalizing various significant sites, including the Atlantic Station Redevelopment in Atlanta, recognized by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency as the nation's best Brownfield redevelopment. He has also been instrumental in expanding and redeveloping various port facilities and has developed financial incentives to support these projects.

In addition to his professional achievements, Pouncey has served on numerous boards and committees, including the Council for Quality Growth, the Georgia Brownfield Association, and the Georgia Chamber of Commerce. Chambers USA has recognized him as one of America's Leading Lawyers for Business and he has received multiple honors, including being named Environmental Lawyer of the Year for 2017 by The Best Lawyers in America. In 2024, he received the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Southeastern Legal Awards.

AUBURN UNIVERSITY COMMENCEMENT SINGERS

ALAINA KELLER

A fall 2024 graduate in Music Education (Vocal) with a minor in Theatre, Keller is from Guntersville, Alabama. She attended Snead State Community College before transferring to Auburn, where she has pursued her deep love for music and teaching. Following graduation, Keller plans to pursue a career as an elementary music teacher, choir director, or music minister and aims to be actively involved in community music, local theatre, and the arts.

HOPE ELYSE BROWN

A fall 2024 graduate in Music Education (Vocal), Brown has been an active member of Auburn's Department of Music and has taught private voice and piano lessons for over two years. Following graduation, Brown plans to work as a choir director, general music educator, or private voice and piano instructor. Brown hopes to share her passion for music education with each student she meets.

GAVIN LYLE

A native of Wetumpka, Alabama, Lyle is graduating from Auburn in fall 2024 with a degree in Music Education (Vocal). With over 15 years of public performance experience, Lyle plans to pursue a career in elementary or high school music in the Southeast, becoming the third generation in his family to serve as a teacher. Aspiring to create a successful choir program, Lyle hopes to inspire future generations to pursue their musical interests.

SAMUEL W. GANTT

From Tallassee, Alabama, Gantt is graduating in fall 2024 with a Bachelor of Music Education (Combined Vocal and Instrumental). With international performance experience as a vocalist, Gantt plans to become a choral, band, or orchestra director at a secondary school after graduating from Auburn. Long-term, Gantt aspires to become a director of choral activities at a university.

Charles E. GAVIN, III

Charles E. Gavin, III, a visionary across numerous fields of national importance, is the recipient of the 161st honorary degree awarded in Auburn University's history. This honor recognizes his lifelong contributions to engineering innovation and education, entrepreneurship, societal impact, and philanthropy.

A 1959 graduate of Auburn's Textile Engineering Department, Gavin also earned an MBA from the University of North Carolina in 1977. As chairman, founder, and former CEO of MFG Chemical, he transformed dyeing conventions in the carpet industry while leading his company's growth into a major supplier to Fortune 500 companies. With a unique perspective on Auburn's research enterprise and the importance of STEM education, Gavin has been an integral partner in supporting the university, leveraging his extensive knowledge and experience in the manufacturing technology sector both in the United States and internationally. Inducted into the Alabama Engineering Hall of Fame in 2016, Gavin is renowned for his transformational work in carpet-dye technology and numerous innovations in the textile industry. His leadership spans nearly six decades of textile development, and he is credited with key advancements in environmental stewardship and sustainable development.

Gavin began his career as a process engineer in dyeing and colorants, quickly rising to become an operating executive. He excelled in transitioning bench-level chemistry into high-speed, profitable manufacturing operations and broadened dyeing processes to include polymer and synthetic fibers. He was a key innovator in developing the synthetic carpet manufacturing industry in Dalton, Georgia, known as the Carpet Capital of the World. Gavin and his wife, Carol Ann, later founded MFG Chemical, which grew from blending and selling specialty chemicals into a prime supplier for various industries, including textiles, pulp and paper, oil and gas, and lubricants. MFG's products are now found in a wide range of commercial and consumer products. Gavin's high integrity, business skills, and technical competency enabled MFG to become a toll manufacturer for large chemical corporations, opening new market channels.

Throughout his career, Gavin has successfully translated fundamental chemistry into innovative engineering practices with broad societal impact. Gavin and MFG remain key players in the American Association of Textile Chemists and Colorists (AATCC) and the Society for Chemical Manufacturers and Affiliates, providing benefits and workforce development opportunities to over 40,000 workers. Additionally, Gavin has been a proud member of the AATCC for over 60 years, serving as president and treasurer, and made the first gift to the AATCC Foundation, establishing scholarships at Auburn and other universities.

His leadership and service contributions to Auburn University are immeasurable. He and his family have provided over $20 million in gifts, resulting in several facilities named in their honor. His contributions have accelerated the advancement of the Samuel Ginn College of Engineering, enabling cutting-edge research and attracting top students and faculty. His support of Auburn Athletics and the arts has also elevated numerous programs to an elite level.

Beyond his philanthropic gifts, Gavin continues to share his time and talents with others, serving on the Auburn Alumni Engineering Council and the College of Engineering's Strategic Leadership Team. His contributions have been widely recognized, including the Auburn Distinguished Engineering Award and the Auburn University's Lifetime Achievement Award.

At the conclusion of the Fall 2024 ceremonies, the College of Nursing will deliver the flowers used to local hospitals, nursing homes, and assisted living facilities.

Auburn University's Commencement Ceremonies would not be possible without the unwavering support of individuals and vendors inside and outside the institution. Through their generous gifts of time and talents, Auburn is able to host ceremonies that celebrate the academic excellence and achievements of our students, reflecting their hard work, commitment, and dedication.

A huge thank you to our commencement partners. War Eagle!

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic regalia worn during graduation is based on attire from the 12th and 13th centuries when universities were being established. Academic dress and accoutrements have been used in higher education in the United States since colonial times. In 1895, an intercollegiate commission adopted a standardized code for the use of academic gowns, hoods, and caps, which included regulation of style and materials. Colors were prescribed to represent different fields of learning. Since then, the majority of colleges and universities in the United States, including Auburn, have upheld the code.

GOWNS

Except for a few universities, academic gowns are all black. The bachelor's gown is the simplest of the three types. The master's gown is similar but has sleeves with an extra long extension. Representing the highest degree, the doctoral gown is fuller throughout and has pleated bell-shaped sleeves. It is trimmed with a velvet band that circles the neck and descends the front, and it has velvet bars on the sleeves.

ACADEMIC HOODS

Academic hoods have endured as the sign of a scholar, and increased symbolism through color and material. Master's hoods are edged in velvet in the color of the candidate's major field. The hood's satin lining shows Auburn's official colors. A doctoral hood is longer and larger than the master's. A doctor of philosophy's hood has dark blue velvet-bound edges and the doctor of audiology has green.

The orange and blue satin lining shows that the degree was conferred at Auburn University. The faculty who march in the academic processional show a range of colors marking their diverse fields, degrees, and institutions.

The traditional rule for academic hoods is that a candidate for a degree should not wear the hood until the degree is conferred. However, at Auburn, master's degrees are conferred en masse, therefore degree candidates wear hoods throughout the ceremony. Doctoral degree recipients are hooded by their major professor during the ceremony. These candidates do not wear the hood during the academic processional, but receive their hood when the degree is conferred.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

CAPS AND TASSELS

A black mortar board is the typical headwear worn, with some faculty wearing black tams. All caps have tassels. Students earning a bachelor’s degree have tassel colors representing their fields. They begin the ceremony with the tassels on the right front side; after all degrees are conferred, they are instructed to move the tassels to the left side. Faculty and candidates for master’s and doctoral degrees already wear their gold tassels on the left side.

STOLES, CORDS, AND MEDALS

In addition to the orange stoles worn by student marshals, some graduates wear regalia signifying academic achievements or membership in organizations, primarily academic honor societies. Students graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, or cum laude wear yellow cords. The Honors College recognizes its graduates with silver medals. Students inducted into Phi Kappa Phi, an honor society incorporating all fields of study, may wear cords of interwoven gold and blue. Some schools and colleges have honor societies unique to their discipline, and students selected for membership wear stoles, cords or medallions representing them. Like hoods, each color and pattern is unique to the honor.

ACADEMIC SYMBOLS

MACE

In ancient Rome, what would later be called a mace was carried at the head of processing civil authorities. By the Middle Ages, the Catholic Church similarly used a mace, which also became associated with the civil authority of monarchies. Today, the United Kingdom's House of Commons still presents a mace to mark the opening of daily sessions being open and legal. The U.S. House of Representatives adopted this practice in 1789, establishing the tradition of the Sergeant at Arms carrying the mace into the chamber to be placed near the Speaker of the House.

As an established symbol of authority, maces in the academic setting were adopted to show that a president represents the governing body of the school. Maces are used in graduation ceremonies to demonstrate that a school has the legal authority to grant degrees. Auburn's mace was created in fall 2015 from the wood of the beloved Auburn Oaks, representing the Board of Trustees' legal authority and linking to a symbol that is laden with meaning to the Auburn Family. The Auburn mace is approximately 42 inches tall and is carried by the macebearer, one of the faculty leaders from the graduation committee.

GONFALONS

Gonfalons are banners that originated in medieval Italy to identify a state or office. At Auburn commencements, each college and school is represented by a unique gonfalon, carried into the ceremony by a student marshal selected from the graduating class. The university gonfalon is carried by the faculty marshal. Additionally, smaller gonfalons stand on the edge of the floor to designate the seating area for each participating college and school.

HISTORIC HOME OF THE AUBURN FAMILY

Chartered in 1856, Auburn University opened in 1859 and became affiliated with the Methodist Church. Throughout the years, the institution has held four official names:

- East Alabama Male College (1856-72)
- Agricultural and Mechanical College (1872-99)
- Alabama Polytechnic Institute (1899-1960)
- Auburn University (1960-present)

Auburn University at Montgomery (AUM) was established as a separately administered branch campus in 1967. The institution has developed rapidly, especially since moving to a 500-acre campus east of Montgomery in 1971. Fall 2019 enrollment at AUM was approximately 5,323.
