COURSE CREDIT

Grades earned in Auburn University courses count towards students' college GPA as well as high school GPA when taken for dual enrollment credit. Students may take up to 24 credit hours in Auburn First.

AUTOMATIC ADMISSION

Students who complete 6 credit hours of approved coursework with a 3.0 or higher unadjusted cumulative GPA by August 15 of their senior year will qualify for automatic admission to Auburn University.

INTENTIONAL SUPPORT

Auburn First faculty have designed their courses to meet quality and accessibility standards that will allow students to maximize their academic potential. Auburn First courses will guide students to learn, practice, and complete thoughtfully created assignments that lay a strong foundation for learning.

COURSE DETAILS

Auburn First courses are offered online, and support is provided with registration in these courses. Students may opt to take on campus versions of these courses; however, students should communicate with Auburn First to find out the differences in registration processes and support available for on campus Auburn University courses.
