SPRING COMMENCEMENT

To the Class of 2020,

Today marks a great accomplishment in your lives. You and your families have invested a great deal to make your graduation a reality. This is a truly remarkable achievement.

As you make plans toward beginning your career, I sincerely urge you to reap the benefits that come with attaining one of the finest educations available. Earning a college degree does not signal the end of the learning experience. Continue asking questions throughout life and never stop learning.

During your time here, you lived an Auburn experience that was all your own. Those memories of Auburn will become more treasured as the years pass. Wherever you go in life, a part of this great university goes with you. While you are not alone in earning an Auburn degree today, I gladly remind you that you are, and will always be, a member of the Auburn Family.

Congratulations and War Eagle!

Jay Gogue
President

ALMA MATER

On the rolling plains of Dixie
'Neath the sun kissed sky
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
Banners high.

To thy name we'll sing thy praise
From hearts that love so true
And pledge to thee our loyalty
The ages through.

We hail thee, Auburn, and we vow
To work for thy just fame,
And hold in memory as we do now
Thy cherished name.

Composed by Bill Wood, 1924
Word Revision, Emma O'Rear Foy, 1960

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

O say can you see,
by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars,
through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched,
were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare,
the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night
that our flag was still there.
O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Music by John Stafford Smith, 1780
Lyrics by Francis Scott Key, 1814
Adopted as the national anthem of the United States, 1931

PAUL BUSH

Dr. Paul Bush is the Vice President for Global Resource Development and Consulting for the American Society of Health-System Pharmacists (ASHP). Dr. Bush received his doctorate in physical therapy and MBA from Wayne State. He serves on the faculty of University of North Carolina Eschelman School of Pharmacy and Campbell University College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences.

He has served as presidential officer, board member and Chair of the Board of Directors of ASHP. Dr. Bush is Past-Chair of the ASHP Section of Pharmacy Practice Managers, Past-Chair of the University HealthSystem Pharmacy Council and has served as a member of the ASHP House of Delegates, Commission on Credentialing, Commission on Goals, and the Practice Model Summit Advisory Committee.

He co-authored Managing and Leading – 44 Lessons Learned for Pharmacists, and chapters in Building a Successful Ambulatory Practice, Financial Management Basics for Health System Pharmacists, Handbook of Institutional Pharmacy Practice, and the Pharmacy Certified Technician Training Manual.

DARRELL CRAVEN

Darrell Craven is president of the Auburn Pharmacy Alumni Association (APAA), the oldest alumni association on Auburn’s campus. As president of APAA, Craven works alongside the Office of Development and Alumni Affairs to raise funds for scholarships and faculty, assist students with convention travel, promote alumni events, and advocate for the profession.

Craven earned his bachelor’s degree in pharmacy from Auburn in 1982. He has worked for both Eli Lilly and Company, and Sanofi, and now serves as the associate director of retail trade relations at Alkermes, a biopharmaceutical company that focuses on central nervous system diseases.

In 2013, Craven and his family established the Craven Family Endowed Scholarship in the Harrison School of Pharmacy. Craven began serving on the HSOP Campaign Committee in 2013, the Auburn Pharmacy Alumni Association Board of Directors in 2015 and the Dean’s Advisory Council in 2017. Craven is also a member of the 1856 Society and Foy Society.

LAURA MATTHEWS

A three-time graduate from Auburn University, Laura Matthews earned a Bachelor of Science in Molecular Biology in 1992 and a Master of Science in Molecular Biology/Physiology in 1995. Matthews worked in research for a few years before returning to Auburn to complete her Pharm.D. in 2008.

After working her way up at East Alabama Medical Center, Matthews stepped into management with a vision for expanding pharmacy services from both clinical and operational perspectives. In the summer of 2019, she saw her vision become reality with the opening of a state-of-the-art compounding pharmacy at EAMC’s Spencer Cancer Center, which serves outpatient oncology infusion needs.

Matthews and her husband, Mac, a fellow Auburn grad, are adjusting to being “empty nesters.” They are blessed with two children, James, a member of HSOP Class of 2020, and Rachel, who graduated from Auburn University in 2019 and is pursuing her doctorate in physical therapy at Belmont University in Nashville.

JIMMY SANFORD

Jimmy Sanford represents District 4 on the Auburn University Board of Trustees and serves as chair for both the Auburn Research and Technology Foundation and the Alabama Cotton Commission.

The former chairman of the Birmingham Branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, Sanford graduated from Auburn University with a bachelor’s degree in business administration in 1968 and a master’s in economics in 1971.

He is married to Dot Hardage Sanford, a 1970 Auburn alum, and is father of three, Susan, Catherine, and Will.

FRANK F. BARTOL

Dr. Frank F. Bartol, a Professor in the Department of Anatomy, Physiology and Pharmacology in the College of Veterinary Medicine and associate dean for research and graduate studies, joined the Auburn University faculty in 1983. A Virginia native, he received a bachelor of science from Virginia Tech, master's and doctorate from the University of Florida through the Interdisciplinary Reproductive Biology Program, and advanced training in molecular biology in the Center for Animal Biotechnology at Texas A&M University. Dr. Bartol has served as Associate Dean for Research and Graduate Studies in the AU College of Veterinary Medicine since 2009. His research in reproductive physiology and developmental biology has been supported by competitive grants from the National Institute of Food and Agriculture, the National Science Foundation, and both private and corporate entities. In 2005, Dr. Bartol was named Donald Henry Barron Lecturer by the University of Florida, for "outstanding research and scholarly activities in the field of reproductive biology". He was named Alumni Professor at Auburn in 2009, and in 2017 he was recognized as a Distinguished Alumnus by the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences at Virginia Tech. He is a member of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the American Society of Animal Science, the American Society for Reproductive Immunology, the Society for the Study of Reproduction, and the Society for Theriogenology. An advocate for the responsible use of animals in research and education, Dr. Bartol is a past chair of the Auburn Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee, a contributing author to the Guide for the Care and Use of Agricultural Animals in Research and Teaching, and has served as Chair of the Animal Ethics Subcommittee for the Society for the Study of Reproduction since 2006.

DAN GIVENS

Dr. Dan Givens, Professor and Associate Dean for Academic Affairs at Auburn University's College of Veterinary Medicine, performed undergraduate studies at Western Kentucky University before obtaining a DVM degree from Auburn University in 1994. After two years of clinical practice in central Kentucky, Dr. Givens earned a doctorate from Auburn University and completed a clinical residency that culminated in board certification in the American College of Theriogenologists. He then achieved board certification in the American College of Veterinary Microbiologists (virology subspecialty) while performing NIH-funded, post-doctoral research. Dr. Givens' efforts in applied research regarding infectious diseases that affect reproduction of cattle have resulted in over 85 peer-reviewed scientific manuscripts, five book chapters, two international patents and numerous national and international presentations. Simultaneously, for his classroom lectures in basic sciences as well as clinical instruction in the large animal teaching hospital, Dr. Givens has received six teaching awards since 2007. Dr. Givens has served as an American Veterinary Medical Association Council on Education site visitor since 2014 and passionately enjoys opportunities to better understand factors that impact animal health and disease and competency of graduating veterinarians.

JIMMY SANFORD

Jimmy Sanford represents District 4 on the Auburn University Board of Trustees and serves as chair for both the Auburn Research and Technology Foundation and the Alabama Cotton Commission. The former chairman of the Birmingham Branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, Sanford graduated from Auburn University with a bachelor's degree in business administration in 1968 and a master's in economics in 1971. He is married to Dot Hardage Sanford, a 1970 Auburn alum, and is father of three, Susan, Catherine, and Will.

OATH OF A PHARMACIST

"I promise to devote myself to a lifetime of service to others through the profession of pharmacy. In fulfilling this vow:

I will consider the welfare of humanity and relief of suffering my primary concerns.

I will apply my knowledge, experience and skills to the best of my ability to assure optimal outcomes for my patients.

I will respect and protect all personal and health information entrusted to me.

I will accept the lifelong obligation to improve my professional knowledge and competence.

I will hold myself and my colleagues to the highest principles of our profession's moral, ethical and legal conduct.

I will embrace and advocate changes that improve patient care.

I will utilize my knowledge, skills, experiences and values to prepare the next generation of pharmacists.

I take these vows voluntarily with the full realization of the responsibility with which I am entrusted by the public."

AUBURN UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF VETERINARY MEDICINE

Established in 1892, the College of Veterinary Medicine is the oldest in the South and is the nation’s seventh-oldest. The college has presented 7,017 Doctorate of Veterinary Medicine degrees and has alumni in all 50 states. Nearly 22,000 cases a year are treated through the teaching hospital, where real-world training is provided to future veterinarians. Award-winning research is conducted across the biosciences spanning basic, translational and clinical research. Funded research addresses animal biotechnology, bioengineering, cancer, diabetes/obesity, genetics, infectious diseases, molecular medicine, neuroscience, gene therapy, nanotechnology, rehabilitation, reproduction, small animal critical care, stem cell biology and veterinary sports medicine. To date, the College of Veterinary Medicine has awarded 671 MS and PhD degrees

VETERINARIAN’S OATH

Being admitted to the profession of veterinary medicine, I solemnly swear to use my scientific knowledge and skills for the benefit of society through the protection of animal health and welfare, the prevention and relief of animal suffering, the conservation of animal resources, the promotion of public health and the advancement of medical knowledge.

I will practice my profession conscientiously, with dignity and in keeping with the principles of veterinary medical ethics.

I accept as a lifelong obligation the continual improvement of my professional knowledge and competence.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic regalia worn during graduation is based on attire from the 12th and 13th centuries when universities were being established. Academic dress and accoutrements have been used in higher education in the United States since colonial times. In 1895, an intercollegiate commission adopted a standardized code for the use of academic gowns, hoods, and caps, which included regulation of style and materials. Colors were prescribed to represent different fields of learning. Since then, the majority of colleges and universities in the United States, including Auburn, have upheld the code.

GOWNS

Except for a few universities, academic gowns are all black. The bachelor’s gown is the simplest of the three types. The master’s gown is similar but has sleeves with an extra long extension. Representing the highest degree, the doctoral gown is fuller throughout and has pleated bell-shaped sleeves. It is trimmed with a velvet band that circles the neck and descends the front, and it has velvet bars on the sleeves.

ACADEMIC HOODS

Academic hoods have endured as the sign of a scholar, and increased symbolism through color and material. Master’s hoods are edged in velvet in the color of the candidate’s major field. The hood’s satin lining shows Auburn’s official colors. A doctoral hood is longer and larger than the master’s. A doctor of philosophy’s hood has dark blue velvet-bound edges and the doctor of audiology has green.

The orange and blue satin lining shows that the degree was conferred at Auburn University. The faculty who march in the academic processional show a range of colors marking their diverse fields, degrees, and institutions.

The traditional rule for academic hoods is that a candidate for a degree should not wear the hood until the degree is conferred. However, at Auburn, master’s degrees are conferred en masse, therefore degree candidates wear hoods throughout the ceremony. Doctoral degree recipients are hooded by their major professor during the ceremony. These candidates do not wear the hood during the academic processional, but receive their hood when the degree is conferred.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

CAPS AND TASSELS

A black mortar board is the typical headwear worn, with some faculty wearing black tams. All caps have tassels. Students earning a bachelor’s degree have tassel colors representing their fields. They begin the ceremony with the tassels on the right front side; after all degrees are conferred, they are instructed to move the tassels to the left side. Faculty and candidates for master’s and doctoral degrees already wear their gold tassels on the left side.

STOLES, CORDS, AND MEDALS

In addition to the orange stoles worn by student marshals, some graduates wear regalia signifying academic achievements or membership in organizations, primarily academic honor societies. Students graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, or cum laude wear yellow cords. The Honors College recognizes its graduates with silver medals. Students inducted into Phi Kappa Phi, an honor society incorporating all fields of study, may wear cords of interwoven gold and blue. Some schools and colleges have honor societies unique to their discipline, and students selected for membership wear stoles, cords or medallions representing them. Like hoods, each color and pattern is unique to the honor.

MACE

In ancient Rome, what would later be called a mace was carried at the head of processing civil authorities. By the Middle Ages, the Catholic Church similarly used a mace, which also became associated with the civil authority of monarchies. Today, the United Kingdom's House of Commons still presents a mace to mark the opening of daily sessions being open and legal. The U.S. House of Representatives adopted this practice in 1789, establishing the tradition of the Sergeant at Arms carrying the mace into the chamber to be placed near the Speaker of the House.

As an established symbol of authority, maces in the academic setting were adopted to show that a president represents the governing body of the school. Maces are used in graduation ceremonies to demonstrate that a school has the legal authority to grant degrees. Auburn's mace was created in fall 2015 from the wood of the beloved Auburn Oaks, representing the Board of Trustees' legal authority and linking to a symbol that is laden with meaning to the Auburn Family. The Auburn mace is approximately 42 inches tall and is carried by the macebearer, one of the faculty leaders from the graduation committee.

GONFALONS

Gonfalons are banners that originated in medieval Italy to identify a state or office. At Auburn commencements, each college and school is represented by a unique gonfalon, carried into the ceremony by a student marshal selected from the graduating class. The university gonfalon is carried by the faculty marshal. Additionally, smaller gonfalons stand on the edge of the floor to designate the seating area for each participating college and school.

Owing much to the past, Auburn's greater debt remains ever to the future.

Auburn University today is a comprehensive land-, sea- and space-grant institution—among the few that hold that distinction—occupying more than 1,840 acres and helping fulfill the dreams of more than 30,000 students. The university began, though, as the small, more humble East Alabama Male College, which was chartered in 1856 and opened its doors in 1859 as a private liberal arts institution. From 1861 to 1866, the college was closed because of the Civil War. The college had begun an affiliation with the Methodist Church before the war. Due to dire financial straits, the church transferred legal control of the institution to the state in 1872, making it the first land-grant college in the south to be established separate from the state university. It thus became the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Alabama.

A land-grant college or university is an institution that has been designated by its state legislature or Congress to receive the benefits of the Morrill Acts of 1862 and 1890.

Old Main

The original mission of these institutions, as set forth in the first Morrill Act, was to teach agriculture, military tactics, mechanical arts, as well as classical studies, so that members of the working classes could obtain a liberal, practical education.

Women were admitted in 1892, making Auburn the oldest four-year, coeducational school in the state and the second-oldest in the Southeast. In 1899, the name was again changed to the Alabama Polytechnic Institute. In 1960, the school officially acquired the name it has long been called and one more in keeping with its location, size and mission—Auburn University. The institution has experienced its greatest growth since World War II, and now has more than 230,000 alumni and over 320,000 degrees awarded.

AUBURN UNIVERSITY – THE HISTORIC HOME OF THE AUBURN FAMILY

Chartered in 1856, Auburn University opened in 1859 and became affiliated with the Methodist Church. Throughout the years, the institution has held four official names:

- East Alabama Male College (1856-72)
- Agricultural and Mechanical College (1872-99)
- Alabama Polytechnic Institute (1899-1960)
- Auburn University (1960-present)

Auburn University at Montgomery (AUM) was established as a separately administered branch campus in 1967. The institution has developed rapidly, especially since moving to a 500-acre campus east of Montgomery in 1971. Fall 2019 enrollment at AUM was approximately 5,323.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES DURING THE CEREMONY

BUILDING EVACUATION

In case of an evacuation, please exit the building through the nearest marked exit door in an orderly and calm fashion. Please be considerate of any persons with disabilities and follow any instructions given by public safety officials.

The ceremony will continue after an “ALL CLEAR” order has been given by public safety officials. Additional announcements will be given as more information is received.

SEVERE WEATHER

In the event of severe weather, guests located on the main concourse level please remain seated. For those located on the mezzanine level, exit your seats in an orderly and calm fashion, and make your way down to the lower-level concourse area. Graduates, please remain seated. Follow the directions given by public safety officials. Do not leave the arena until the announcement is made that it is safe to do so. Be considerate of any children and persons with disabilities. The ceremony will continue after an “ALL CLEAR” order has been given by public safety officials. Additional announcements will be given as more information is received.

Auburn University is an equal opportunity educational institution/employer.

I believe in the human touch, which cultivates sympathy with my fellow men and mutual helpfulness and brings happiness for all.

The EAGLES, Education to Accomplish Growth in Life Experiences for Success, initiative is a comprehensive transition program for students with intellectual disabilities housed in the College of Education's Department of Special Education, Rehabilitation, and Counseling. Students engage in a two or four-year campus experience that provides post-secondary education opportunities and prepares students to become contributing members of society. The non-degree program focuses on academic enrichment, personal and social skills, independence, and integrated work experiences.

EAGLES students participate in university classes, on-campus jobs, volunteer experiences, and on-campus collaborations during their time at Auburn University. The EAGLES are assisted around campus by Auburn student mentors who are members of the WINGS, Warm-Hearted Individuals Nurturing Great Success, program. WINGS peer mentors reside with EAGLES students, support independent living skills, participate in activities with EAGLES students, provide opportunity for connections to other students and support EAGLES in social and community environments.

Students in the EAGLES program learn how to live out the Auburn Creed as they prepare for life now and in the future.

"My sisters, parents, grandparents, and great-grandfathers all went to Auburn and I wanted to go too. The EAGLES program gave me the chance to go to Auburn and be in the Auburn Family. I have learned to live independently and have learned job skills for when I graduate. The best part of going to Auburn is making friends and hanging out with them."

-Bradley Basden

"This experience has been the best thing ever. Being the first to be in the EAGLES program meant I was ready to show new EAGLES what it was like to be an Auburn student. What an honor it is to be at Auburn University. War Eagle!"

-Josh Greiner

"It's always been my dream to attend Auburn University. My grandfather, father, and sisters attended Auburn. My dreams came true as I stepped into my Auburn family's footsteps, and being a part of the Auburn family means the whole world to me!"

-Anna Moates

ALMA MATER

ON THE ROLLING PLAINS OF DIXIE
'NEATH THE SUN KISSED SKY
PROUDLY STANDS OUR ALMA MATER
BANNERS HIGH.

TO THY NAME WE'LL SING THY PRAISE
FROM HEARTS THAT LOVE SO TRUE
AND PLEDGE TO THEE OUR LOYALTY
THE AGES THROUGH.

WE HAIL THEE, AUBURN, AND WE VOW
TO WORK FOR THY JUST FAME,
AND HOLD IN MEMORY AS WE DO NOW
THY CHERISHED NAME.

THE AUBURN CREED

I BELIEVE THAT THIS IS A PRACTICAL WORLD AND THAT I CAN COUNT ONLY ON WHAT I EARN. THEREFORE, I BELIEVE IN WORK, HARD WORK.

I BELIEVE IN EDUCATION, WHICH GIVES ME THE KNOWLEDGE TO WORK WISELY AND TRAINS MY MIND AND MY HANDS TO WORK SKILLFULLY.

I BELIEVE IN HONESTY AND TRUTHFULNESS, WITHOUT WHICH I CANNOT WIN THE RESPECT AND CONFIDENCE OF MY FELLOW MEN.

I BELIEVE IN A SOUND MIND, IN A SOUND BODY AND A SPIRIT THAT IS NOT AFRAID, AND IN CLEAN SPORTS THAT DEVELOP THESE QUALITIES.

I BELIEVE IN OBEDIENCE TO LAW BECAUSE IT PROTECTS THE RIGHTS OF ALL.

I BELIEVE IN THE HUMAN TOUCH, WHICH CULTIVATES SYMPATHY WITH MY FELLOW MEN AND MUTUAL HELPFULNESS AND BRINGS HAPPINESS FOR ALL.

I BELIEVE IN MY COUNTRY, BECAUSE IT IS A LAND OF FREEDOM AND BECAUSE IT IS MY OWN HOME, AND THAT I CAN BEST SERVE THAT COUNTRY BY "DOING JUSTLY, LOVING MERCY, AND WALKING HUMBLY WITH MY GOD."

AND BECAUSE AUBURN MEN AND WOMEN BELIEVE IN THESE THINGS, I BELIEVE IN AUBURN AND LOVE IT.

—GEORGE PETRIE
