

M10 Participation Check

1. What are the major work areas within which private and forensic rehabilitation counselors are practicing? (short answer)
2. _____ is an extension of the intervention or care plan, expanded to cover probable future needs in the areas of evaluation, therapies, diagnostics, medications, mobility, equipment, supplies, nutrition, transportation, attendant services, adapted recreation, invasive procedures, retrofitting, or other areas of need. (fill in the blank)
3. Describe three key specialized skills required for private sector forensic rehabilitation counselors. (short answer)