

Senate of Alabama

MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

Resolution

COMMENDING DR. GLENN R. HOWZE
FOR HIS CONTRIBUTIONS TO
THE STATE OF ALABAMA AND THE AFRICAN CONTINENT

By Senator Ted Little

WHEREAS, it is with highest esteem that we commend Dr. Glenn R. Howze for his contributions to the rural development in the state of Alabama and the African continent and upon his retirement from the Auburn University Department of Agriculture Economics and Rural Sociology; and

WHEREAS, a member of the faculty of Tuskegee University from 1967 to 1983, Dr. Howze served as Director of both the College Science Improvement Project and the Center for International Rural Development; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Howze was a member of the faculty of Auburn University from 1985 to 2003, where he taught courses in Micro-Computer Applications and Statistics as well as Community and International Development and Research Methods; he has written eight editions of a computer manual that is used by 200 students per year and he has been involved in major research activities including projects investigating timber-dependent communities; and

WHEREAS, active in the governance of Auburn University, Dr. Glenn Howze served as University Senate Chair, Chair-elect, and University Senator; and he has received many prestigious awards including the AAUP Academic Freedom Award, the Auburn Black Caucus Faculty Leadership Award, and a Fulbright Scholarship; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Howze has worked extensively in rural development in Africa as an employee of both Tuskegee and Auburn Universities; and

WHEREAS, indeed, the invaluable contributions of Dr. Glenn R. Howze have earned the admiration and respect of those who have had the privilege of associating with him and also made a lasting contribution to countless individuals; now therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA,
That Dr. Glenn R. Howze is hereby recognized for his outstanding contributions made to the state of Alabama and the African continent and upon his retirement; a copy of this resolution shall be provided with sincere best wishes for every future happiness and success.

I hereby certify that the above Interim Resolution No. 04-049 is a true and correct copy, introduced on this the 29th day of January, 2004, pursuant to Senate Rule No. 79.
