- Current supervisors can take part in Leading People, even if they haven't started or completed Leading Self.
- Supervisors of student employees can take part in Leading People.
- More information will be coming soon for aspiring supervisors. (They may have to complete Leading Self first. Chris Richie or the HRD team can share additional details regarding that.)
- We want to increase the participation of Staff employees who are supervisors in Leading People. (As of today, only 18 out of 500+ have started or completed the program.) We would love your feedback on how we can increase the participation rate. We would also love to hear from the departments.
