† The $200 proration fee is a quality fee implemented due to the fact that Auburn University's state appropriations have been reduced (prorated). In order to provide the level of services that our students have become accustomed to, this fee has been added instead of a permanent tuition increase. When state appropriations return to a level to adequately assist in funding university operations, the proration fee may be reduced or eliminated.

Graduate students' tuition and registration fee are waived, provided they are on a one-quarter time or greater appointment and are being paid according to the approved salary structure as a Graduate Research or Teaching Assistant. The appointment date must be effective as of the eighth class day of the Spring semester, the fifth class day of Summer semester or session, or September 1 for the Fall semester. The proration fee, professional and program fees, and distance learning fees are not waived. Graduate students that have their tuition and registration fee waived pay the GRA/GTA enrollment fee each semester.
