

RESPECT

We Respect the Rights and Dignity of Others: We are committed to providing an environment in which every member of the Auburn community feels welcomed, valued, respected, and engaged. Our institution prohibits harassment, threats, violence, and discrimination. We prohibit retaliation against personnel who file complaints in good faith regarding discrimination or misconduct. Simply, we treat others how we would want to be treated.

We are committed to Equal Opportunities for All: We understand and value the importance of a welcoming community and providing equal opportunities for all. The University environment fosters rigorous, constructive, truth-seeking discussions about questions of consequence. In that regard, Auburn Personnel are expected to treat one another with the kind of courtesy and respect that allows Auburn community members to learn from one another, despite differences in viewpoint or background.
