LIVING THE CODE

DAILY DEDICATION

While the Code is not a policy, all policies emanate from the Code. The Code is a resource synergizing the University's Policies and Procedures so that they are accessible and easy to understand.

The ethical standards set forth in the Code complement current and future University policies which guide our daily activities to prevent legal and regulatory violations.

The Code should be utilized to promote and reinforce the University's culture of compliance and ethics, foster loyalty and retention, and build stronger relationships with students, collaborators, and business partners.

If you have questions or concerns about the Code, or about possible illegal or unethical behavior, or noncompliance with University policy, you should speak with your supervisor, another University leader, the Office of Audit, Compliance & Privacy, or utilize the confidential reporting hotline, Ethics Line at aub.ie/ReportIt (or other appropriate offices). Together, we make Auburn University a place where everyone is respected, takes responsibility for their actions, and trusts one another to do the right thing.
