If you did not buy a book with a mastering access code you will need to do this.

If you got an access code with your text book, or have previously has access to Mastering A&P within the last year you should not need to buy one on line. See the other presentations

If you would like to get the etext rather than the books choose yes.

Choose no etext if you already have the book. It is a lot more expensive to get the etext with the mastering access.
