

COVID-19

RESOURCE CENTER

VACCINATION PROGRAM PHASES

PHASE 1A

- Individuals serving in a healthcare setting who have the potential for direct or indirect exposure to patients or infectious materials and are unable to work remotely.
- Campus first responders.

PHASE 1B

- Individuals 1) who are required to be on campus to perform their job duties, AND 2) who are unable to consistently maintain physical distancing while at work due to job responsibilities, AND 3) who have a high-risk medical condition as specified by the CDC and/or are age 65 and older.

PHASE 1C

- Individuals 1) who are required to be on campus to perform their job duties, AND 2) who are unable to consistently maintain physical distancing while at work due to job responsibilities.
- Other adults with high risk medical conditions as specified by the CDC and/or are age 65 and older that do not fall under 1b.
- Designated student population involved in remote or off-campus clinical settings, including internships and practicums that involve direct human contact.

PHASE 2

- All individuals not included in Phase 1a, 1b or 1c as vaccine becomes available.

PHASE 3

- Family members and dependents of employees as vaccine becomes available.
- Members of the local community as vaccine becomes available.