

I'm an employee and tested positive for COVID-19.

What happens next?

- 1 Contact your supervisor immediately.
  - Your supervisor will ask about your recent activities on campus.
  - You may be referred to your department's COVID-19 Liaison.
- 2 Complete the COVID-19 Self-Report Form.

The information goes to the Office of Institutional Research. It is kept confidential and is used to notify Campus Safety. They monitor information about the prevalence of COVID-19 on campus and will share this information anonymously as needed.
- 3 Stay tuned for additional guidance
  - More information, including when you can return to campus and types of leave available to you, will be provided by your COVID-19 liaison.
