

FINANCIAL AID CONSENT FORM

AUBURN

STUDENT INFORMATION

FIRST NAME _____ LAST NAME _____

BANNER ID _____

The form is used by students to authorize the release of information of their personal, financial, and educational records to a third-party for the purpose of determining eligibility for external scholarships or grants. This information cannot be used by the third-party for other purposes. Auburn University will NOT release a student's information unless authorized to do so by the student.

The Federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) is a federal law designed to protect the privacy of a student's education records. All schools receiving funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education must comply with FERPA. FERPA generally prohibits schools from releasing education records or certain information contained in such records, such as your grades, billing and payment records, financial aid awards, and other student record information, to third parties.

Further, the Higher Education Act (HEA) of 1965, as amended, restricts the use of FAFSA data and states that information collected on the FAFSA form must be used only for the application, award, and administration of federal, state or institutional aid programs.

INSTRUCTIONS

If you are applying for a scholarship, you must complete this written consent form for the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships to release the FAFSA information to a scholarship granting organization or tribal organization. This completed form may be returned to the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships.

By signing below, I authorize Auburn University Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships to release my financial aid information, limited to expected family contribution/student aid index (EFC/SAI), award program amounts, registration status, financial need information, cost of attendance, and compliance with Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP), to the below organization(s). This release is only valid for the academic year/term(s) and organization(s) indicated below. This release can be cancelled during the academic year by submitting a written request to the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships.

If the scholarship organization requires an official transcript, please visit auburn.edu/administration/registrar/transcript for information on how to order.
