AUBURN UNIVERSITY REAL CENTS REAL CHANGESM CAMP FOR AGES 13-18 | JUNE 16 - 21, 2013

Want to feel confident about how to manage money at any stage of your life? Want to empower yourself while helping others? Want to leverage your natural talents, skills, and treasures to benefit others? Want to learn how to create a lasting legacy? Let's get REAL! AND make positive things happen! The REAL Cents REAL ChangeSM Summer Camp is a week-long residential camp produced by the Cary Center for the Advancement of Philanthropy and Nonprofit Studies and the Office of Professional and Continuing Education that empowers teens (ages 13-18) through education, leadership and philanthropy. Teen participants will learn the basic skills of financial management and how to maximize their philanthropic impact. Participants will experience campus life while residing in Auburn's resident dormitories, eating at campus dining facilities, and enjoying evening social and recreational activities. Camp participants will have 24/7 counselor supervision. Camp tuition is $549.
