Jonna Chizik

CO-FOUNDER, THE CHIZIK FAMILY
YOUTURN FOUNDATION, INC.

Jonna Chizik has been intimately involved in community service ever since her husband, Gene, got into coaching. Jonna's heart for children has evolved through years of volunteerism and prayer to the Chizik Family YouTurn Foundation, which was launched in the spring of 2011.

A native of Roswell, New Mexico, Jonna graduated from Clearwater (Fla.) High School in 1987. She earned a degree in early childhood development from Florida State University in 1991 and a degree in elementary education from Stephen F. Austin University.

Jonna taught fourth grade for three years but has stayed home since 1997 with her children, Kennedy and Landry, 13; and Cally, 11. She has been actively involved with a number of organizations and issues at every stop in her husband's coaching career, from the Boys & Girls Club and A-Team Ministries to pediatric cancer, foster care and adoption advocacy.

The mission of the Chizik Family YouTurn Foundation is to partner with non-profit organizations in Alabama that focus on equipping youth with effective tools to make positive choices to allow them to become successful citizens. The Foundation has been funded in part by the proceeds of Coach Gene Chizik's book, "All In, What It Takes to be the Best." Coach Chizik has donated all of his proceeds from the book, published by Tyndale Publishers this summer, to the foundation.

For more information on the YouTurn Foundation, visit www.allinforouturn.com.

Kristi Malzahn

PHILANTHROPIST

Kristi Malzahn, the wife of Auburn Offensive Coordinator Gus Malzahn, has answered the call to serve ever since her husband got into coaching. The Malzahns view coaching and their opportunity to help children as a ministry, answering God's call to serve others.

A native of Houston who grew up in Ft. Smith, Arkansas, where she met Gus as a high school junior, Kristi is a graduate of Southside High School. She also attended Henderson State University. Kristi and Gus are the parents of two daughters, Kylie and Kenzie, who currently attend Auburn University.

The Malzahns attend First Baptist Church in Opelika, where Kristi teaches in the college ministry. She is involved with the leadership of Community Bible Study, the Auburn University Fellowship of Christian Athletes and the Chizik Family YouTurn Foundation, Inc. She also has traveled to Haiti with Samaritan's Purse along with Jonna Chizik.

Kristi says the opportunity to work with Jonna and YouTurn has been a blessing because it gives her a chance to help reach the needs of children who otherwise slip through the cracks.
