HIGHER EDUCATION LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

Auburn University, Auburn, AL May 2011 to present
Director, Office of Faculty Engagement and the Encyclopedia of Alabama, Office of the Vice President for University Outreach

Provides university-wide leadership and support for engaging faculty in the following (9) primary outreach and engaged scholarship functions at Auburn University as elucidated by the institutional strategic plan. Administrates the annual intramural Competitive Outreach Scholarship Grants program and the annual Outreach Scholarship Symposium. Annually ensures faculty members (approx. 30 annually) at Auburn University have detailed and accurate information regarding outreach and engaged scholarship requirements as part a percentage allocation of work as well as for tenure and promotion via public forums and consultation.

Provides opportunities, incentives and support designed to increase Auburn's Outreach and engagement enterprise. Shares information about collaborative projects with members of the university's leadership as well as the university at large (e.g., Faculty Outreach and Engagement Council and Provost's Council). Engages in collaborative interdisciplinary scholarship projects with faculty that integrate domains of outreach, research, and engagement with various campus and community groups. Assists faculty with applications for intramural and extramural funding and recognition/award opportunities. Facilitates collaborative projects and activities that include cultivating engagement awareness and outreach activity that has a local, state, regional, national, and international scope, and impact. Manages the university outreach faculty engagement web space, marketing, survey data analytics, and contributes op-ed articles and announcements on faculty engagement activity in the university outreach publication Beyond Auburn. Supervises the staff, and departmental operations, community partnerships and engagements of the online Encyclopedia of Alabama. Reports to the Associate Provost and Vice President for University Outreach.

Key Outreach and Engagement Accomplishments

Conference Chairperson, 2017 Engagement Scholarship Consortium May 2015 – Oct 2018

May 2015 co-developed a conference proposal for Auburn University to host the 2017 ESC Conference in the southern region. March 2016 was named the conference chairperson and assumed oversight responsibility of 2017 conference. Managed the 2016-17 Conference Leadership, Program and Local planning committees charged with program planning and development, operations, logistics, communications, and transition/succession assistance for the 2018 ESC conference. I was involved in the oversight, planning, implementation, and follow-up reporting for this event. This includes, but is not limited to, the development of a two-day program consisting of four general sessions, and pre-conference workshops and concurrent sessions. Also served as the master of ceremonies for the four general sessions and co-delivered a concurrent presentation.

Guest Co-Editor, JHEOE 2017 ESC Special Edition Nov 2017 – Oct 2018

Special Engagement Scholarship Conference Edition of the Journal of Higher Education Outreach. Co-developed and organized call for manuscripts with JHEOE editorial staff, recruited review board, co-assessed reviewer feedback, co-determined revision feedback to authors and articles and features for publication in the special edition.

Participant, Management Development Program (MDP) June 2017

Through a competitive application process (requiring endorsements from Auburn University leadership), was selected to participate in a premier professional management and leadership development program at the Harvard Institutes for Higher Education (HIHE) - Harvard University Graduate School of Education.

Chairperson, Competitive Outreach Scholarship Grant (COSG) Program 2011 - present

Managed over one million dollars of University Outreach sponsored funding in support of over 100 individual faculty in community-engaged outreach initiatives producing engaged scholarship; informed by publicly engaged research, teaching, and service. Event planning and development for signature program to recognize grant recipients annually.

Chairperson, Outreach Scholarship Symposium 2012-present
Coordinated four professional meetings at which over 700 faculty, staff, students, and community attendees participated. Each meeting showcased and increasingly brought greater attention to community engagement and outreach, and supported impact vitality among engaged faculty at Auburn University.

Faculty Specialist, Counseling Education and Collaboration Initiative May 2016-2021
In collaboration with the counseling faculty at the University of Cape Coast (UCC), Ghana, Africa, was invited as a Faculty Specialist to complete a 6-week residency to engaged in a knowledge sharing/exchange, conduct a counseling program needs assessment, evaluation, devise a capacity building plan and participate in other scholar-collaborative activities. Additionally, to deliver seminar presentations, strategic plans/proposals, a manuscript draft and to draft a conference presentation. I was named to the Fulbright Specialist Roster for 2018-2021 and have applied for a Fulbright Specialist grant with the UCC Counselor Education program faculty. The grant is pending approval by the U.S. Embassy in Ghana and Fulbright Commission.

Co-Lead, University Outreach Cultural and Educational Delegations to Cuba 2015-2017
Organizer and co-lead facilitator of (4) 7-9-day University Outreach Cultural and Educational Delegations to Cuba (2015-2017) with teams of 3-4 co-facilitators and a total of 27 delegates (community professionals, faculty, and staff). Each program provided delegates the opportunity to learn and explore opportunities and feasibility for community outreach/engagement, study abroad opportunities and research and with professional counterparts in Cuba.

Faculty Contributor, Tuskegee Auburn Women's Leadership Alliance (TAWLA) 2015-present
Contributor and collaborator of the leadership alliance that involved 5 Tuskegee University/community Faculty and 9 Auburn University faculty, staff and students in outreach and professional development activities. In partnership with Auburn University Outreach, co-hosted 2016 AU Outreach and TAWLA Symposium and scholarship was produced from the alliance (Outside In: Voices from the Margins - an edited book currently under contract to be published).

Faculty Contributor, Public Health Nursing Clinical Emersion Study Abroad 2014
Community Mental Health faculty contributor and affiliate subject matter specialist as part of a 10-day Public Health Nursing Course-Embedded Study Abroad program with a team of 3 faculty and 10 nursing students. Subsequently presented referred presentations at national conferences with program contributors.

Co-Faculty Lead and Program Developer, Destination Malawi 2012-2017
Co-organized, managed and contributed to (2) 3-week Destination Malawi Community-based Study Abroad programs (2012 and 2013) with a team of 4 faculty and 26 total students. For the 2013 experience developed and taught a course with 4 students: COUN 7970 Special Topics: Global Studies in Counseling - Destination Africa: Malawi. Research was conducted and engaged scholarship was produced.

Workshop Chairperson, Understanding the Impact of Racial Identity Development on Counseling and Education Forum 2009

This outreach project began in fall 2008 and involved one academic year of planning, organization, and implementation, as well as partnering with various entities committed to heightening diversity awareness in the state of Alabama. This workshop was led by Dr. Janet Helms, Augustus Long Professor at Boston College, in May 2009. The initiative for inviting Dr. Helms as a lecturer grew out of class discussions about diversity with students in the Department of Special Education, Rehabilitation, Counseling/School Psychology, the College of Education Diversity Committee, and the Alabama Association for Multicultural Counseling and Development Social Justice and Action initiative.

Camp KEMET and KEMET Academies 2006-2012

Co-Lead Faculty and CO-PI 2006 recipient of an Auburn University Outreach Scholarship grant that was designed to facilitate a youth educational enrichment summer camp and youth scholar academies for enhancing the educational skills, health, and mental wellness of fifth and sixth graders who reside in four rural southeastern Alabama counties. Co-organized, managed and contributed to on-going activities and academies that continued to support and engaged youth participants. Engaged scholarship was produced from this project.

COUNSELOR EDUCATION PROGRAM ADMINISTRATION EXPERIENCE

Auburn University, Auburn, AL June 2008 to May 2008

Placement Coordinator – Masters CCA Program and Doctoral CED Program

Coordinated field training placements for program areas within the department with a significant number of students enrolled (i.e., practicum and internship placements) within community and agency mental health counseling settings. Doctoral counselor education students (when needed).

Auburn University, Auburn, AL January 2005 to May 2008

Program Coordinator – Masters Counseling/Community Agency (CCA) Program July 2008 – August 2011

Coordinated the program area within the department with the largest student enrollment (approx. 55) at that time, curriculum monitoring, materials revision, and enhancements, (i.e., graduate student handbook and portfolio template), and evaluation of core courses as required, participated in program admissions and annual review of students, accreditation goal setting, data collection and programmatic review. Integrated into this process is consideration of trends and professional standards in community mental health. Responsible for 1) addressing inquiries and responding to all potential applicants' requests for program information and recruitment efforts throughout the academic year; 2) the coordination of the application process, admission, and matriculation (i.e., advisor assignment in cooperation with program faculty) of new students which occurs in the spring semester of each academic year; and 3) revision of program application materials on an annual basis. A significant component of this responsibility is practicum and internship placement of master's and (when needed) doctoral counselor education students within community counseling settings. Additionally, coordination includes maintaining contacts with sites to promote contact, identification, and establishment of new of community counseling sites partnerships, site/program evaluation, and revision of placement and supporting materials. Furthermore, coordination includes handling student and other difficulties related to site placements.
