

APPOINTMENT OF MAJOR PROFESSOR AND ADVISORY COMMITTEE FOR
THE MASTER OF SCIENCE DEGREE
DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN DEVELOPMENT & FAMILY STUDIES
AUBURN UNIVERSITY

revised 8/2012

It is the student's responsibility to submit this form.

It is due when your major professor and committee members have been selected and have agreed to serve. This will typically be by mid-term of the student's second semester in the program.

The form documents that you have completed the following three key steps in your Master's program:

1. You have selected your major professor
2. In consultation with your major professor, you have identified at least two faculty for your Advisory Committee, at least one of whom is from HDFFS. All selections must be members of the Auburn University Graduate Faculty (but individuals not at Auburn may be approved to serve by the Dean of the Graduate School).
3. You have met with prospective committee members to confirm their willingness and availability to serve on your advisory committee.
