Belief System

Programming in the College of Human Sciences is based on the following principles:

- ✿ Quality of life is a function of the reciprocal relationship among people and their environments.
- ✿ Human diversity generates a dynamic force for progress.
- ✿ Global issues will increasingly affect the well being of individuals, families, and communities throughout the world.
- ✿ Each generation is responsible for stewardship of the earth's human and natural resources.
- ✿ Professional integrity and ethical behavior can best be promoted by a single set of personal and professional values.
- ✿ A genuine commitment to organizational excellence is the foundation for professional success.
- ✿ Education is strengthened through partnerships with industry and government.
- ✿ Contemporary issues are complex and most effectively addressed by an interdisciplinary approach and team effort.
- ✿ Information technology is basic to the success of educational programs for 21st century graduates.
- ✿ World-class education requires that students and faculty reach beyond the classroom to gain relevant practical experiences, an awareness of emerging trends, and a realistic perspective of their place in the world.
